Sen. Taft To Make Major Campaign Speech Here Friday

SEN. ROBERT A. TAFT, leading candidate for the Republican nomination as President, will make a major campaign speech in Marion tomorrow speaking engagements Friday afternoon.

"Mr. Republican" will talk from the west side of the Courthouse at 1:30 p.m. His address in the afternoon will follow speaking engagements Friday morning in Mansfield, the only appearances of the senior Ohio senator in this area before the primary election next Tuesday.

Taft, chairman of the Senate Republican policy committee, opened a whirlwind campaign of Ohio today in a bid for a clean sweep of Ohio's convention delegates.

An overwhelming victory in his home state would give him a big boost in his race with Gen. Eisenhower for the nomination. An Associated Press tabulation of pledged convention delegates has Taft out front, 274 to 270. Taft's campaign headquarters, however, claims 305 votes.

Speech Will Follow Luncheon

Taft's address here will follow a luncheon in his honor given by the Republican party's 8th district central committee. Attending will be party leaders from the seven counties in the district—Marion, Hardin, Wyandot, Crawford, Morrow, Hancock and Seneca. The luncheon will be held at Hotel Harding at noon.

His scheduled speech outside the Courthouse will be moved inside in case of inclement weather.

Arrangements have been made for a public address system to carry his speech to the public.

The talk is expected to last half an hour. It will follow an introduction of the Taft delegates and alternates running for election in this district. They are Marion E. Hinklin of Marion and Edwin S. Naus of Upper Sandusky, delegates, and Gar Smith of Mt. Gilead and Willis J. Hakes of Fostoria, alternates. All are chairmen of the Republican executive committee in their counties.

Introducing the delegates and Sen. Taft will be Ralph E. Carhart, Marion County prosecuting attorney.

From Marion, Taft will travel to Bowling Green for a speech scheduled for 4 p.m. He is scheduled to arrive in Marion from Mansfield at noon.

The Ohio Senator, who has been serving in the Senate since 1938, opened his Ohio campaign in Akron this morning. His schedule for the day calls for speeches at Akron, Hiram College, Cleveland, Medina, and then back to Akron for a dinner and public rally later in the evening.

SEN. ROBERT A. TAFT

He is to travel to Mansfield tonight, staying there overnight.

His schedule tomorrow opens with a press conference at 9 a.m. A breakfast will follow at 9:30. He is to leave for Marion at 11 and arrive here at noon.

He plans to leave Marion for Bowling Green at 2:30. From Bowling Green, he will go to Toledo for five speeches, climaxed by a television talk from 10 to 10:30 p.m. over station WSPD-TV. He will leave Toledo late Friday night for Cleveland, where he will make a number of appearances Saturday and Sunday. He is to return to Washington from Cleveland Sunday night.

Travels By Auto

Taft is to do his traveling about the state by auto. He will be accompanied by Frank Avren from the state Republican party headquarters.

The luncheon in his honor here has been arranged by Robert Evans of Findlay, state central committeeman from the 8th district, and Mrs. Martin Wheatcraft of Galion, state central committeewoman.

Nearly 100 Republican party leaders in the district are expected to attend. They include the chairman and secretaries from the county central and executive committees in the district as well as heads of the Republican women's and men's organization, Young Republican Clubs and Labor-for-Taft organizations in the seven-county area. Executive committee chairmen expected are Willis J. Hakes of Seneca County, O. H. Hilborn of Tiro in Crawford County, Gar Smith of Morrow County, Robert Evans of Hancock County, Edwin S. Naus of Wyandot County.

Taft is scheduled to give a 15-minute talk at the luncheon before the party leaves for the courthouse and the main speech.

A Cincinnati native, Taft was first elected to the Senate in 1938. He was re-elected in 1944 and sent back for a third term by an overwhelming majority in 1950.

He made several speaking appearances in Marion in his last campaign for re-election to the Senate and often has stopped here overnight between speaking engagements. He has called Marion one of his favorite cities.

In his speech at Hiram College, Sen. Taft made a lashing attack on the Truman administration.

"Four more years of this 20-year-old entrenched administration will make it impossible to return to the free enterprise system in the country," he said.

He charged the Democratic national administration with corruption and said "on foreign policy I plead guilty of not being bi-partisan. Truman has never consulted the Republican party or myself about Korea, and not even Congress."

Effects Of Oil Strike Being Felt

Some Shortages Of Gasoline Reported; 90,000 Workers Out

DENVER (AP) — The nationwide strike of nearly 90,000 unionized oil industry workmen went into its second day today with shortages of gasoline for motorists already reported in scattered areas.

Some filling stations in the steel-producing area of Gary, Hammond and East Chicago, Ind., reported they were out of gasoline Wednesday night, less than 24 hours after the strike began. Other stations were expected to run out today. Similar shortages were cropping up in the Midwest.

In Washington, government officials said shortages must be expected if the strike is prolonged.

The Oil Workers International Union (CIO) in Denver, representing refinery and pipeline workers and heading a coalition of 22 CIO, AFL, and independent oil unions, said "the most promising" negotiations were going on in San Francisco.

Union Demands

Officials said the union in talks with Shell Oil had trimmed its original demand for a 25-cent hourly wage boost to 22 cents and "a lot of other compromises are being kicked around."

The unions also are asking increased differential pay. They want six instead of four cents for the 4 p.m. to midnight shift and 12 instead of six cents for the midnight to dawn shift.

The average wage in the industry now ranges from $2 to $2.10 hourly.

Cyrus C. Ching, chief of the Federal Mediation Service, had predicted a possible nationwide pattern for settlement from an agreement he said was reached at Standard Oil of Indiana's Sugar Creek, Mo., refinery.

45-Day Supply Of Gas On Hand

WASHINGTON (AP)—Government officials estimated today the nation has about a 45-day supply of gasoline but shortages must be expected if the oil workers strike is prolonged.

Earlier industry sources reported gasoline stocks at an all-time high, and said the strike of 90,000 CIO, AFL and independent union oil workers in refineries, pipelines and distribution plants may cause only spot shortages in the near future.

Government officials said latest reports showed gasoline supplies April 26 were enough to last 45 days, but they could not estimate minimum working stocks which oil companies might figure they need.

Pipeline Workers On Job Here

Pipeline workers in the Marion area are still on the job in spite of the strike which has idled thousands in other parts of the country.

A representative of the Sinclair Oil Co. said 25 workers in Marion are still on their jobs here. He said the company is still dispatching refined products to Pennsylvania although the company's operations have ceased in other parts of Ohio and Indiana. The pumping station in Marion handles fuel oil, kerosene, and gasoline.

Bulk plants in Marion report there is no shortage of gasoline or other products for the retail market at the present time.

Stalin Hailed in Moscow

Bloody Riot Erupts In Tokyo as Reds Observe May Day

By The Associated Press

Riots, strikes and rival demonstrations by Communists and non-Communists flared around the world this May Day as the workers of the world—far from united—showed their colors and shouted their creeds in the Cold War.

Tokyo was blooded with violent riots.

Tense Berlin,, guarded by police and troops, staged rival demonstrations within sight of each other.

Soviet Prime Minister Stalin authenticated pro-Red celebrations by appearing at Lenin's tomb to watch Soviet might troop through Red Square.

New York readied a parade down Eighth Avenue with 1,800 police and detectives alerted to watch. But Louis Weinstock, organizer of the combined Communist and Leftist demonstration, was slated for another day in court where he is on trial with 15 other secondary Red leaders.

Singapore was a contrast. About 5,000 Chinese, Indians and Malays observed the international labor holiday by saying prayers for the dead of the two world wars.

In Tokyo thousands of Communists, swinging clubs and throwing rocks, burst through police lines upon a peaceful non-Red crowd of 300,000.

Norman Thomas Flees

Witnesses said more than 100 persons—some of them Americans—were injured. Two American speakers — socialist Norman Thomas and the president of the American Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, J. Philip Randolph—retreated form Meiji Park in Tokyo without having a chance to address the non-Red workers.

Communists stoned the Dai Ichi building, until recently Allied occupation headquarters. More tried to cram into the forbidden plaza before the imperial palace. Police drove them back with clubs and tear gas.

Americans were shoved and hit by rocks. Two U. S. sailors were thrown into the palace moat. The wife of a Navy man was mauled. Two American photographers were roughed up and one was stoned three times. Twelve American-owned automobiles were overturned and burned.

American children were sent home early and told to stay in their houses.

The rioters stormed for five hours, waving Red banners, carrying pictures of Stalin and shouting: "Go home, Yankees."

About three million Japanese turned out throughout Japan for more than 400 rallies. The only reported violence was in Tokyo.

Soviet troops and workers paraded before Stalin. His son, Vassily, a lieutenant general in the Red Air Force, led aerial squadrons in a thundering stream over Moscow's sunlit Red Square.

Stalin's last public appearance was on March 29, at a meeting of Russia's Supreme Soviet. He had watched last year's May Day parade.

Stalin Hailed

Russian papers printed huge photographs of him on their front pages, and emphasized the military, rather than the civilian aspects, of the socialist holiday. Pictures of Navy minister Nikolai G. Kuznetsov and the armed forces minister, Marshal Alexander M. Vasilevsky, were printed beside Stalin's with orders of the day to "increase vigilance and military preparedness."

Sunbury Man Killed, 3 Hurt In Bus Crash

DELAWARE (AP)—One person was killed and three others injured today when a Greyhound bus and an automobile collided on U.S. Route 36 near nearby Sunbury.

The Ohio Highway Patrol identified the dead man as Earl S. McCormick, 61, of Sunbury, Route 1, driver of the car. He was dead on arrival at Mercy Hospital in Mt. Vern n.

Injured were the bus driver, Byron E. Stratder, 26, of Columbus, cut on the face by flying glass; and two bus passengers, Mrs. Martin Logan, 48, of Centerburg, possible rib fractures, and Miss Betty Hanger, 24, of Mt. Liberty, possible shoulder injuries. They were taken to Mercy Hospital in Mt. Vernon.

Eight other passengers were unhurt.

The highway patrol said the bus was southbound from Mt. Vernon to Columbus. The accident happened at a bridge near where the old Route 36 meets the newer road. The bus went into a ditch but did not overturn, the patrol said.

Mystery of Navy Ship Crash May Be Solved by Survivor

WASHINGTON (AP)—A deck officer who escaped may help solve the mystery of the minesweeper Hobson's disastrous crash with the carrier Wasp.

A radioed dispatch from the damaged Wasp, steaming slowly for New York with 61 survivors of the Hobson aboard, disclosed that Lt. (j.g.) B. E. Cummings, one of those rescued, was junior officer of the deck at the time of the collision.

The Hobson's skipper, Lt. Comdr. W. J. Tierney, managed to get clear of the wreckage before it sank Saturday in mid-Atlantic, but he was not found. One hundred and seventy five of the ship's company went down with her.

Of major importance to the Naval Court of Inquiry, when it convenes at New York next week, will be what orders were given aboard the Hobson in the moments before the collision and what signals were exchanged between the minesweeper and the carrier. From them, the court may learn why the sweeper laid a course which brough her under the knife-like bow of the carrier.

Cummings may be the officer who can tell that story.

The "court" of inquiry appointed by Adm. Lynde McCormick, commander-in-chief of the Atlantic Fleet, is a fact-finding agency and not a court in the legal sense.

The three admirals who comprise the court will seek to find out these things:

1. Was the collision caused by

Candidates To Speak On TV Show

All But Taft, Ike And Russell On Same Platform

CINCINNATI (AP)—Cincinnati, a lively town on the Ohio River and the "Gateway to the South," becomes the presidential campaign center of America today.

With three exceptions, leading candidates of both parties for that $100,000-a-year job in the White House (plus $50,000 expenses) are coming to stump from the same platform.

They will do this on a nationally televised (ABC) political quiz show, starting at 7 p.m. (EST) tonight and lasting for an hour.

Senator Robert A. Taft (R-Ohio), a Cincinnatian himself, isn't expected. Neither are Senator Richard B. Russell (D-Ga) and Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

However, the program's producer—the League of Women Voters — is permitting ex-Economics Cooperation Administrator Paul G. Hoffman to substitute for Eisenhower. Substitutes for Taft and Russell have been barred. Speakers, besides Hoffman, will be:

Democratic Speakers

Democrats — Senator Estes Kefauver of Tennessee; Senator Robert E. Kerr of Oklahoma; W. Averell Harriman, former diplomat.

Republicans—Harold E. Stassen, ex-governor of Minnesota, and Gov. Earl Warren of California.

Although he is speaking in place of Eisenhower, Hoffman will give his own views—not Ike's

Marion GOP Groups Protest League Stand

A telegram protesting the League of Women Voters' refusal to allow a stand-in to represent Sen. Robert A. Taft on a nationwide TV program featuring the principal candidates for President was sent to the League Wednesday by the Marion County Republican Club and the Marion County Chapter of Republican Women.

Taft, invited to speak along with other candidates, was unable to appear because of previous commitments. The program will be broadcast tonight from Cincinnati and Taft has a series of speaking engagements in northern Ohio.

The League made an exception in the case of Gen. Eisenhower, because he is now in Europe. It has allowed Paul Hoffman to speak for Eisenhower.

Taft himself has called the refusal to allow him to send a representative "unfair."

The telegram, signed by officers of the organizations, was sent to Mrs. John G. Lee, head of the League. It read:

"The undersigned organizations go on record as requesting in all fairness, equal representation for Robert A. Taft as well as other candidates on the TV program at your national convention of the League of Women Voters at Cincinnati, Ohio, May 1, 1952."

Show on Channel 6

The television show will be carried tonight from 7 to 8 o'clock over station WTVN in Columbus, channel 6.

MILLS GO BACK TO GOVT.; STEEL STRIKE STILL ON

TO WORK OR NOT TO WORK. Striking steelworkers went back to work when Truman seized the mills, resumed picketing as pictured above when Federal Judge David Pine ruled the seizure illegal Tuesday. Now they are confused about whether or not to return again since a Federal Court of Appeals last night handed the mills back to the government by continuing the government seizure temporarily in effect until the Supreme Court can rule on its legality. If they continue to stay out, they will be striking against the government. These men, shown at the South Chicago works of the U. S. Steel Co., are awaiting word from steelworker chief Phil Murray.

Snarl Issue In Maze Of Legal Action

Murray Holding Off Back-To-Work Move Until Smoke Clears

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government had the steel industry back under federal seizure control today, but it remained an open question whether Philip Murray's striking CIO steelworkers will return to work.

It was considered at least possible that the government may seek to lure the 650,000 strikers back to their jobs by giving them the pay raise which Murray had tried unsuccessfully to pry out of the unwilling steel firms.

Murray withheld comment, but government attorneys, in getting the Federal Appeals Court here Wednesday night to restore President Truman's seizure temporarily, said they may have to seek a back-to-work court injunction against Murray's union.

Moving in an attempt to head off a pay boost, the steel companies today asked the U. S. Court of Appeals to bar the government from raising wages while holding their seized plants.

The companies took their plea to the same court which Wednesday night acted to continue the government seizure in effect until the Supreme Court decides on whether or not it will rule on the question of Truman's authority to take over the mills.

Workers picketing the idle steel mills said they'd stay on strike until the confused situation clarified. Joseph P. Molony, a union district director at Buffalo, N. Y., said:

"It is unlikely the men will return to work until they find out just whom they are working for and who is going to give them a raise in wages. On Monday the government runs the steel mills. On Tuesday, the steel companies take their turn. Here it is Wednesday and look who's back in."

"It's the responsibility of the government (to get the men back to work) under federal control," acting Attorney General Philip B. Perlman told the Appeals Court. "And we'll exercise that control."

The seizure actually was wiped out for something less than nine hours. Although Federal District Judge David A. Pine ruled Tuesday that Truman's April 8 seizure order was unconstitutional, he didn't sign injunctions to end the seizure until mid-morning Wednesday.

Government attorneys immediately headed for the District Court of Appeals, got all nine judges hearing the case, and by dusk obtained a stay of Pine's injunctions. The stay may endure for weeks, until after an ap-

Would Combine Fund Drives

United Appeals Plan Approved Unanimously

By EDNA S. DUTTON

The first step towards combining fund raising drives in Marion city and county into one major campaign was taken Wednesday night when a group of approximately 150 persons, by a raising of hands, voted unanimously for the establishment of a United Appeals organization.

Attending the meeting, held in the West Hall of Harding High School, were representatives of the various agencies in the Marion Community Foundation, officers and members of the Foundation, business, industry, the Marion County Chapter of the American Red Cross, polio, heart and cancer fund-raising agencies, CIO, AFL, Manufacturers Council, Retail Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, County Ministerial Association, Business and Professional Women's Club, civic and service groups and individuals interested in the movement.

Explains Plan

Presiding was Cleo R. Ludwig, chairman of a committee named earlier in the year to investigate and observe the organization and workings of United Appeals Campaigns in other cities. Speakers from out of the city were Orville C. Jones of Columbus, educational director of the Ohio CIO and Frank Brockmeyer, liaison officer of the CIO who serves full time on the Columbus United Appeals staff.

Following talks and a question and answer period, the group voted to set up a steering committee composed of one representative from polio, heart, Red Cross and Cancer societies, two from the Community Foundation, and five persons to be appointed by Mr. Ludwig from contributors and workers in the various fund drives. This group will formulate plans suitable for the needs of the city and county which will be presented in another public meeting in the near future.

In opening the meeting Chairman Ludwig stated the purpose of the gathering was not only to decide whether or not the community should proceed with the establishment of a United Appeals organization but of deciding whether or not a common effort of all groups of our community can be blended together towards the accomplishment of an important mutual objective. He emphasized the importance of approaching the problem with sincerity and unselfishness and expressed the opinion that a federated drive sroould not necessarily cost the individual any more than has been contributed in the past. He stressed the need and importance of all the agencies for which fund drives are held.

Jones expressed the CIO's approval of a United Appeals organization and cited the success of federated giving in other cities. He congratulated the group on

Kenton Man Given Stay of Execution

COLUMBUS (INS)—An automatic stay of electrocution was granted today to Chester Gregg of Kenton, under sentence of death for the shotgun slaying of his "Lonely Hearts" bride, with the filing of an appeal to the Ohio Supreme Court.

Gregg's execution had been scheduled for next Wednesday.

In his appeal Gregg contended there was no evidence of premeditation and deliberation, and that the only indications thereof are wholly circumstantial and denied by his direct testimony.

Gregg married Alma Gleim, operator of a Lonely Hearts Club and thrice-married previously, following a correspondence romance in July, 1950. They argued frequently over her continued operation of the club.

Finally, on March 21, 1951, they became embroiled in an argument at the home in Kenton and Gregg went to his car, picked up a shotgun, and killed his wife.

Clamor For Impeachment Grows Louder

Truman's Refusal To Use Taft-Hartley Act Riles Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — Impeachment talk grew louder on Capitol Hill today as Congress considered giving itself power to halt strikes with injunctions.

Some Republicans heretofore lukewarm on impreachment proposals said continued refusal by President Truman to invoke the Taft-Hartley law in the steel dispute might leave Congress no alternative but to impeach him.

As the court battle between the administration and the steel masters seesawed toward the Supreme Court, there were these other developments:

1. The House armed services committee scheduled hearings starting probably next Tuesday on an new anti-strike bill which could block strikes indefinitely in emergency periods.

2. A technicality prevented the House judiciary committee from going ahead today with a scheduled vote on 10 impeachment and related proposals.

3. Half a dozen committees busied themselves directly or indirectly with various phases of the steel controversy.

Servicemen From Marion Area Return

The names of three Marion area servicemen are included on a list of 3,388 Army combat veterans from Korea who arrived in San Francisco Tuesday aboard the transport Gen. W. F. Hase. They are Cpl. Wayne E. Walterhouse of Bucyrus, Sfc. Robert M. Williams of Cardington, and Cpl. John M. Palmer of Marysville.

DESIGNER STRICKEN

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Fashion designer Gilbert Adrian, husband of the former actress Janet Gaynor, was stricken with a heart attack in his Wilshire Boulevard shop Wednesday. His doctor described the designer's condition as critical.

McMillen And Union Agree On Pensions

Non-Contributory Plan Approved By Firm, UAW Local

Agreement on a pension plan was reached Wednesday by McMillen Feed Mills, Division of Central Soya Co., and Local 750, McMillen unit of the United Automobile Workers, the company union announced jointly today.

All qualified employes of McMillen Feed Mills will benefit from a non-contributory pension plan, it was announced by Robert W. Fay, plant manager, and Gerald Baldwin, chairman of the union.

The plan will be supported entirely by the Central Soya Co. with an effective date of March 1, 1952. The plan is subject to approval of the Bureau of Internal Revenue and the Wage Stabilization Board.

Trust Fund

Details of the plan were presented to the employes at a special meeting Monday night. The plan involves creation of a trust fund out of which payment of benefits to retiring employes will be made. The company will assume the entire cost of the pension plan and no employe will be required to contribute toward the cost of the plan.

The plan provides for retirement at age 65 for male employes and age 60 for female employes after 15 years of service, with a guaranteed minimum monthly pension after 25 years of service, less all benefits from public pension, such as social security.

Provisions also are included for earlier retirement under varying degrees of adjusted benefits and for disability retirement at any age under 15 years of continuous service.

"The management of our company has devoted months of careful study to the formation of the Central Soya Pension Plan," Fay stated. "Our company has investigated practically every major plan now in existence in this country and the company included many of the best features from these plans into our negotiated agreement. The plan is in such form that all past service employes on the payroll March 1, 1952, will be credited toward retirement benefits as far back as the founding of the company on Oct. 1, 1934," he explained.

Broad In Scope

"Thus, the plan is just as broad in scope and coverage as it would have been had it been instituted at the very beginning of the company," he added.

The company and union agreement was negotiated for a period of five years. Baldwin, union chairman, said that in comparison with other pensoin plans, he feels a good pension was obtained for the membership at McMillen. "There are some parts that may need changing," he said. "However, we have a long time to iron them out."

UNION CO. IN BLACK

MARYSVILLE — County Auditor Frank McCurdy's annual report today revealed that Union County is still among the soundest financial counties in Ohio. The report shows that at the start of this year the balance in all county funds was $184,902. The general fund, from which the most of the county's expenses are paid, had a balance of $42,381. All funds had a surplus to start this year, the auditor reported.

Plus Massachusetts

GEN. EISENHOWER'S impressive demonstration of popularity in the Massachusetts primary puts him within striking distance of Sen. Taft in his total of committed delegates.

While these totals are not necessarily carried into convention voting, they indicate a candidate's appeal to his own political organization. Perhaps the number of write-in votes for Eisenhower in the Democratic primary in Massachusetts meant even more than his Republican total. Sen. Taft, too, found a following among voters in the Democratic primary.

With the two front-runners now approximately even (Associated Press tabs Taft at 274, Eisenhower at 270) the shape of the Republican presidential contest is definite and clear. Neither man will start to the convention two months from now with a clear advantage.

Sen. Taft will continue to be favored strongly by those who believe he is best qualified to carry the fight to the opposition; who believe that his willingness to do this job for his party would make his rejection as its nominee a betrayal of good faith.

Gen. Eisenhower will continue to be favored strongly by those who believe he would have the best chance to beat any nominee the Democrats might put up, just as they believed he had the best chance to keep Sen. Taft from winning by acclamation a nomination he had earned by his service to the party.

The Massachusetts primary leaves no doubt about an old-fashioned "hoss race" in the Republican presidential primary.

Government Will Appeal

IT WOULD not be surprising if the autopsy on the Fair Deal disclosed that death finally was caused by stupidity in the Department of Justice.

That man McGranery who was called in to do a job for this party has had his hands full ever since he replaced Harold McGrath. As Federal Judge Pine indicated in his ruling that the steel seizure was illegal, the claim that President Truman had a right to do it is nearly incredible.

Perhaps it was this dirty assignment rather than the Newbold Morris incident which caused McGrath to leave the Department of Justice in favor of McGranery. Now that Judge Pine has blocked the move, it is going to be dirtier than ever.

The Justice Department's lawyers now must scurry to the U.S. Supreme Court with an appeal to set aside Judge Pine's ruling. They must stand in the American high temple of justice and argue with straight faces that a citizen named Harry Truman, because of certain political commitments he has made, has a clear right to seize private property to force its owners to give a labor union everything it wants.

There are judges on the supreme bench who will be tempted to think the government's lawyers are in contempt of court for daring to present such an argument in the highest court's presence. It is not too much to hope that all the judges on the supreme bench would feel that way when this crowning absurdity of Fair Deal arrogance finally comes before them on appeal.

Dialectics in the U.S.A.

IS YOUR head spinning with the pros and cons of the argument over steel seizure?

Are you able to follow the ins and outs of the legalists threading their tortuous way through claims and counter-claims?

Have the statements by President Truman, Charles E. Wilson, the price administrator, the wage administrator and a lot of other administrators, past and present, been easy for you to follow?

Has it ever occurred to you how close the American people are coming in an issue like this to the Communist art of dialectics, which is argument for the sake of confusing the people?

At any given moment in any given situation, the air can be filled with enough legal arguments, claims, statistics and appeals to prejudice to muddy an issue beyond hope of clearing it up in a lifetime.

This device sometimes is used deliberately to conceal the real purposes behind relatively simple facts.

It was a relatively simple act which Mr. Truman performed when he seized the steel industry to appease a labor union ready to close down the industry unless it got what had been recommended by the Wage Stabilization Board. Only the after-effects are complicated.

In direct recognition of the simplicity of the presidential act, Local 1557, United Steel Workers (CIO) voted to make Mr. Truman a member, a decision which reveals more about the nature of the event than a million words of argument pro and con.

Did You Know

There is only one automobile in Japan for every 2,400 people, compared to a U.S. rate of one car for each four persons. The International Trade and Industry Ministry, conducting a survey, found that Japan had twice as many cars in 1937 as it did in 1951. It also disclosed that Japan produces about 10 cars daily while the U.S. completes an average of 12,000 daily.

Effect of Decision

By David Lawrence

Steel Controversy Back Where It Belongs

WASHINGTON

FAR AWAY AS it may seem at the moment, the net effect of historic pronouncement — that a the decision by Judge Pine in his President has no inherent powers except those derived from laws on the statute books—will be to place the steel controversy back where it belongs, namely, in the hands of the unions and the companies themselves to settle by collective bargaining.

There was no excuse for the seizure, no excuse for the first strike call and no excuse for giving to the public, as President Truman did, a distorted version of what had happened to bring about the seizure. There is evidence that the dispute could have been settled by negotiation and a workable compromise.

For, despite all the protestations to the contrary by Price Stabilizer Arnall, for instance, that the companies were not entitled to more than the increase in price provided for by the so-called Capehart formula, the Office of Price Stabilization has, since the seizure, revised the method of measuring the Capehart price change and has authorized a straight $3 a ton. Such an assurance before seizure would have been a factor helping to prevent a break in the negotiations.

ON TOP OF THIS—although not hitherto known to the public—the same Office of Price Stabilization now has revealed that it did recently approve a $1.50 additional price increase over and above the $3, thus making a total of $4.50 a ton. Mr. Arnall says he will not offer it again, but it is a damaging admission nevertheless that the administration has not told the public what it has been doing all the time it has been claiming that $3 was its limit on the price side.

Now the steel companies have said that around $5.50 would be a fair basis for settlement. So the two sides have been coming closer and closer together. Judge Pine, therefore, performed a great service in insisting that the Constitution be respected. For, in ordering the steel plants turned back to their owners, in effect he said that this problem could be dealt with by the parties or by a law of Congress. Both houses are in session and could enact legislation authorizing seizure and banning a strike if so desired.

Official Washington is rapidly coming to realize that seizure settles nothing and that in this instance the CIO union relied on seizure as a means of getting their demands fulfilled, for it was announced that the administration was ready to impose the terms which had been recommended by the Wage Stabilization Board. As long as the CIO had the government to rely on to back up its demands and as long as the government was unwilling to permit a price increase to the steel companies to offset added wage costs, there was an impasse. Judge Pine's decision clears the air and puts the problem back where it belongs—in the hands of the parties at interest.

BUT WHAT OF the national emergency and the loss in steel production? What kind of emergency? It's also an emergency when the Constitution is violated, public confidence in our institutions is undermined, and private property is rendered insecure. It's an emergency, to be sure, when the government wants steel produced for national defense but lately the government itself has "stretched out" the defense program, and especially aircraft production, for a period of from three to five years. Is the emergency to be considered of five-year duration? If so, the laws of the land should provide standards for executive action or for the settlement of labor-management disputes during such a quasi-permanent condition of affairs.

Judge Pine's comments during the arguments indicated how he would rule. He is a fearless judge devoted to constitutional law. So anyone familiar with constitutional principles was not surprised at his decision.

The situation now turns on the legal side to the Supreme Court of the United States. The Department of Justice had planned, even before Judge Pine's opinion was known, to docket the case in the Circuit Court of Appeals, ask for a stay of execution so as to be able to maintain the status quo—which means a continuance of seizure—and then go direct to the Supreme Court. Mr Murray's strike call, if maintained, would run counter to an order of the court to hold things at their previous position until the Supreme Court can hand down its opinion.

But with both sides knowing now that seizure is not legal or likely to be upheld, the ball passes to the disputants to settle their issues or else Congress will enact a law providing for compulsory arbitration. And that's something neither side would want to see happen.

ADHERING TO THE Constitution is the safest course even if it means a strike. For, as Senator Maybank of South Carolina, Democrat, chairman of the Senate banking and currency committee, and other members of Congress have wisely said—there are many things worse than a steel strike, and one of them is the destruction of the Constitution of the United States. Judge Pine himself made the same point.

President Truman is placed in a very embarrassing position by Judge Pine's decision, for, though he tried by a published letter Sunday night to modify what had been said, in court, the basic principles which Mr. Truman had sought to establish — inherent power to seize private property — were not upheld. Does this mean that the House of Representatives now has a better case for impeachment? The court record is a piece of damaging evidence of the purpose of the President and the drive for impeachment probably will get added momentum now.

No Candidate Should Withhold Views

By George E. Sokolsky

NO CANDIDATE for public office has a moral right to withhold information concerning himself or his views, personal or political. Once he sets himself up as a candidate, his private life is in the public realm, because the people have the right to judge his character, his sincerity, his balance. His public views cannot be regarded as his secret, for we elect not only a man but an official—one who can by wisdom and sanity affect our lives favorably, by whimsicality and deceit can bring upon us untold miseries.

Among the many questionnaires being sent to Presidential candidates, the Hearst one has the virtue of simplicity, although to my taste and way of thinking, it is one that is too easy to answer. I prefer to trip up the candidates. I prefer to load questions, so that once answered, the candidate cannot turn around and say the opposite. Naturally, I distrust candidates because their anxieties often cause them to say less than they mean, in language that is more suitable for lawyers trying a case before a jury than for suppliants for the people's favor on election day.

YET, THIS particular questionnaire, which was sent to all those whose names are mentioned as candidates, encountered only three rejections: General Eisenhower wrote a delicately flavored letter that he could not speak to the people while in uniform, which is nonsense, because he has been doing plenty of political business in uniform; General MacArthur is not a candidate, being a firm and now open supporter of Senator Robert A. Taft; Averell Harriman preferred to make his views, if any, known in due course by general public pronouncement.

The other candidates wrote interestingly on many subjects. For instance, on the subject of Korea, Senator Taft wrote:

"I am in favor of concluding an armistice in Korea providing it can be done with honor . . . at the present time, I think that the Russian air power is constantly increasing and is sufficient to prevent us conducting a successful war to push back the Communists into Manchuria, as could have been done when General MacArthur proposed it some ten months ago. If we renewed the war, we would have another stalemate war which was costing us 2,000 casualties a week before the negotiations began. A stalemate peace is better than a stalemate war."

HAROLD STASSEN is sharp and to the point. He wrote:

"Call General Douglas MacArthur back in for advice and counsel. He would undoubtedly make a new appraisal of the situation from up-to-date intelligence and recommend an affirmative course which would make use of the Chinese National troops."

Some Republican candidates might have the political wisdom of announcing that, if elected, MacArthur would be charged with the security of the nation.

Governor Earl Warren wrote:

"Our country should do everything within its power through the United Nations to bring about a cease-fire and effective peace in Korea along some line north of the 38th Parallel that can be adequately defended and under such other conditions as will prevent a successful surprise attack by the Communists. If our government should become convinced that this result is impossible, it should frankly tell the American people that fact. We must then recognize that we have a war on our hands that can be ended satisfactorily to the United Nations and ourselves only by the use of whatever military force may be necessary to defeat the forces of aggression against us, whoever they may be."

THIS IS A LITTLE hard to understand. We have had a war on our hands since June 25, 1950, which will soon be two years. We have suffered enormous casualties which are reported at 107,000 but are much larger. We are expending a huge fortune on this war and have had to remobilize the nation. The United States has put up 90 per cent of the manpower and nearly 100 per cent of the cost. How can anyone go on talking about the United Nations? What has the United Nations done but prolong this war? Has Governor Warren read the Russell Committee hearings?

I should also like to see the views of Governor Dewey, who is a "deadlock-candidate," as all politicians who are watching the machinations of Herbert Brownell, Dewey's man, know. On Korea, Dewey's views are clear; on some other questions, he would, probably, prefer the Stygian silence of Eisenhower.

Strange Alliance

By RAYMOND MOLEY

ON THE SAME day, April 30th, there are released two important historical documents. The one, a book, "Wendell Willkie," by Mary Earhart Dillon is, an able account of Willkie's meteoric political career. It is based on a good many personal interviews with people who knew Willkie and and were familiar with the events with which he was associated. Mrs. Dillon is a good reporter. She offers a fair and judicious estimate of Willkie's mistakes as well as his virtues.

The other author is also a good and honest reporter. He is Samuel I. Rosenman, for 17 years Roosevelt's friend, adviser, and speech collaborator. His article, "What Makes a President?" published in the May Ladies' Home Journal, is part of a book yet to come.

The two sources should be read together to gain an understanding of a startling revelation offered by Rosenman. For while Mrs. Dillon does not apparently know the specific facts of this incident, she provides a setting into which the Rosenman account fits perfectly.

ROSENMAN SAYS that in June, 1944, which it will be recalled was an election year, F.D.R. revealed to him a plan to enlist Willkie in an effort to build up a new political party. Rosenman was sent to make the proposition to Willkie. While Willkie did not commit himself to Rosenman, the idea, according to Rosenman, "meshed exactly with his own thinking."

Then Roosevelt secretly wrote a letter to Willkie proposing a secret meeting. Willkie drafted an answer which he never sent, expressing sympathy with the idea but adding that it had better be left until after the election.

But Roosevelt, while he did not tell Rosenman about the letter, apparently slipped the information to somebody else. Thus it got into the press. But later, at a press conference, Roosevelt flatly denied it. Then, no doubt feeling embarrassed, he wrote to Willkie

By TRUMAN TWILL

Dear Nephew: I have been thinking about faith—the ordinary kind of faith which keeps an ordinary mortal from turning into a cynic. Several recent events have given me special reason to think about this matter.

I have been cheated many times in my life, though never, I hope, by the same cheater twice, unless he cheated me the first time without my knowing it. Yet, I continue to believe that no one is going to cheat me. I know this is not true. I know I will be played for a sucker. But I prefer to assume it is not going to happen and to forget it when it does happen.

I have a limitless faith in people.

This makes me an easy mark. But it would be as unnatural for me to feel otherwise as it would be to fly by flapping my arms. The special reason for thinking about this matter is that twice in the last few days I have been hit on the button by people who accurately estimated that I could be played for a sucker.

In both cases, I was aware of the possibility. Come to think of it, there have been few times in my life when I was cheated that I wasn't aware of the possibility.

Yet, I never beat the cheaters to the punch. I let them know I assumed they were going to give me a square deal in return for the square deal I intended to give to them.

This makes me a certified boob. I suppose it is one of the reasons why no one is afraid of me, which is a handicap because it means no one ever knocks himself out to win my approval. But I can do nothing about it. It would not be natural.

Besides, I feel sure there are enough well-qualified people who know how to deal with cheaters and even beat them at their own game so that I'll never be missed. It's like rabbit-hunting, which would not be possible without rabbits. If all the rabbits got smart enough to keep out of harm's way, no one would have any fun. There would be no mink dyed rabbit coats in Washington, would there?

Cheaters are entitled to the pursuit of happiness. The latest fellow who picked up a little money he wasn't entitled to by taking advantage of my assumption that he was an honest man probably feels good because he outwitted me in a game I wasn't playing. The other one, who thinks he has been giving me a hard time because I let him take advantage of me, may or may not feel good. But I am not wasting any time brooding about him. The only time I'm wasting is in my own behalf.

I am brooding about what is missing that makes it impossible for me to expect the worst in others and be braced to deal with it in a two-fisted, hard-nosed manner. I am too old now to change my ways and thus will have to live out what is left of my span as a Grade-A sucker.

Regards to the rest of the family.

Marion County History Brevities

By EDNA S. DUTTON

The first year spent by a pioneer family in Marion County was perhaps the most difficult. All were in the wild woods on their first trial to raise food for future support. No one had so much as a potato patch until he cleared a field in the green woods, and it was hard work to get from three to five acres of ground ready for the plow in time for spring crops. All trees over 18 inches in diameter were usually left standing and deadened by chopping a girdle through the bark and sapwood of each tree.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Through the White House

President Truman does that telecast and personal commentary on a trip through the new White House: Hello everybody. I am very glad to come into your homes and take you through my home, as strange as that sounds. This is one telecast you can get through without a cigaret test and I intend to endorse no razor blade, cereal or beer. Let me begin by stating that this is the finest White House I ever planned to leave. Why I should decide to move out after it has been so greatly improved is a natural question, but I shall offer no jackpot for the correct answer.

First let me show you through the beautiful entrance. The not-so-beautiful exit can wait. Note the exquisite broad stairway! As one prepares to come up the stairs, the feeling is majestic. If you want to know what the feeling is as you come down the stairs you can ask Newbold Morris, Attorney General McGrath, Charlie Wilson and the steel corporations. I call your attention to the famous Tipoff Chandelier, so called because it tipped me off to the condition of the building. I noticed the chandelier quiver and shake one morning. And it was not the morning after a Jackson $100-a-plate dinner.

The chandelier shook visibly, and if any critic says everything has shaken visibly under my administration, I resent it. I realized from this that the White House was disintegrating. Unless something was done it was obvious no President could safely stay in it from eight to sixteen years. It cost $5,700,000 to make this building fit for the next tenant! If a Republican moves in, it will be a waste of money. If a Democrat moves in the dough will have been well spent. Five million seven hundred thousand dollars may seem a lot of money for this television show, but if Margaret and Durante can take that kind of money in stride why can't I?

Now we come to the Blue Room. Nobody has been blue in it for the last 20 years except Republican tourists. To the right is the Green Room. Obviously to the left is the Philip Murray room. An attendant has handed me a note from somebody who wants to see the bathroom where my tub had begun to list to starboard due to structural weaknesses. I'll gladly do so. Here we are. Note the floor. It is without a sag. The tub in on an even keel which is more than I can say of the Presidential yacht, the national economy or the world in general. Let us now leave the bathroom before somebody sneaks in a plug for a soap.

Next we come to my favorite part of the White House, the Seizure Suite. It is completely equipped for the seizure of anything at a moment's notice. Note the Louis XIV sofa on which I can repose and seize any corporation by merely pressing a button. This room is done in knotty pine. Or in Judge David Pine, I am not sure. And now we come to the Lincoln Room. Lincoln was the last Republican President to sleep here. If I am wrong my secretary will issue a supplemental statement later. I am aware that Republicans will roast this telecast because I am not in a position to show Lincoln on it, too. Give us Democrats another term and we will do that. And now a word from my sponsor . . . WHAT AM I SAYING!!!

One Man's Opinion

By WALTER KIERNAN

There are no supporting facts but it is quite possible that pressing small boys into starched white suits and insisting that they dance around the May pole may have had something to do with them turning Communist later.

We had a boy in our neighborhood who was forced into a dancing class when he could have been learning to shoot pool with the rest of us . . . soured his whole outlook on society.

Last I heard he was working on a time fuse under the direction of the Kremlin while muttering under his breath, "Why didn't they leave me alone when I was young?"

Well if it isn't one revolutionary idea it's another . . . Now Connecticut has banned the smorgasbord as unsanitary.

I understand they would have banned it three years ago but they had to learn to spell it before they could ban it.

* * *

My barber says he never was poisoned by a smorgasbord but he's had a little trouble with the mahogany at the other end of the room.

Daily Bible Thought

A new year presents a challenge. Here is a clean slate on which we can write what we will, but the record will last for eternity, so long as memory endures. Here is a chance to record noble deeds, kindly thoughts, unselfish devotion to good and great causes. Mistakes in the past may well teach us to avoid them this year. Ye shall not pass this way again. Y To Present Club Awards

The annual awards program of the Marion YMCA will be held Friday at 7:30 p.m. in the Club Co-ed rooms. Gra-Y and Junior Hi-Y awards for the past year will be presented.

Verne Hensel, assistant coach at Waldo High School, will serve as master of ceremonies and the invocation and benediction will be given by the Rev. R. W. Faulkner, pastor of Calvary Evangelical United Brethren Church. G. E. Siefert, vice president of the local Y, will present the awards. A. L. Haas, general secretary of the Y, will give a brief address and a film, "Basketball Highlights of 1949-50," will be shown.

Clubs to receive awards are the St. Mary Gra-Y Club for its first place finish in the Gra-Y football league, the Mark St. Gra-Y club for its first place finish in the basketball league and the State Street Junior Hi-Y Club for first place in the Junior Hi-Y basketball league.

Parents and friends of the club members are invited to attend.

Try Marine For Murder At Newark

NEWARK, O., (AP) — The prosecution is expected to conclude its case today in the first-degree murder trial of Louis Allen Angel, 18-year-old Marine private charged with slaying Allen Drake, 43, Columbus.

The Huntington, W. Va., youth and his friend, Pvt. Harmon Cordray, 18, of Mooresville, Ind., are accused of killing Drake March 4 on U. S. Route 40 near Kirkersville.

Cordray is scheduled to go on trial June 2.

Angel's 14-year-old fiancee, Peggy Fowler, told the court Wednesday how she cut classes at Utica High School to be with Angel, whom she met when she was 13.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Fowler, also testified. They told about the youth's visits to their home and indicated they approved of the couple's romance.

The defense is expected to put on its first witness this afternoon.

Brand New Pie Magic

ORANGE COCONUT PAFAIT PIE . . . Simple—but oh, my!

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

If you like to try recipes that are "different," these pie fillings will intrigue you. They're so new you won't find rules for them in any cookbook. Designed for spring and summer eating, they're fluffy and fruit-flavored, and made quickly by combining fruit-flavored gelatin, fruit, and ice cream. The filling is ready in an amazingly short time because the ice cream cools the hot gelatin mixture. Here's a recipe for a pastry shell into which to put these delicate fillings.

FLAKY PASTRY SHELL

Ingredients: 1 cup sifted enriched flour, ½ teaspoon salt, 1/3 cup shortening, 2 to 3 tablespoons milk.

Method: Sift together flour and salt; cut in shortening until particles are size of small peas. Sprinkle milk over, tossing lightly with fork, until dough holds together, form into ball. Roll out on floured board or prepared pastry cloth to an 11-inch circle. Fit loosely into 9-inch pie pan. Gently pat out air pockets. Fold edge under to form standing rim; flute. Prick crust well with fork. Bake in hot (425 F.) oven, 10 to 12 minutes. Cool and fill with Orange Coconut or Maple Banana Parfait Filling.

ORANGE COCONUT PARFAIT FILLING

Ingredients: ¼ cups orange juice, 1 three-ounce package orange-flavored gelatin, 1 pint vanilla ice cream, 1 cup moist shredded coconut (cut in short lengths), orange sections and extra coconut (if desired).

Method: In 2-quart saucepan heat orange juice to boiling; remove from heat. Stir in gelatin until dissolved. Cut small pieces of ice cream into hot liquid; stir at once until melted. Fold in coconut well. Chill until thickened but not set—about 30 to 35 minutes. Turn into Flaky Pastry Shell. Chill until firm—about 15 minutes. (The times given for thickening and chilling may vary, depending on individual refrigerators.) Top with orange sections and extra coconut if desired.

MAPLE BANANA PARFAIT FILLING

Ingredients: 1¼ cups water, 1 three - ounce package lemon-flavored gelatin, 1 pint maple-nut ice cream, 1 cup ripe banana (mashed), banana slices.

Method: In 2-quart saucepan heat water to boiling; remove from heat. Stir in gelatin until dissolved. Cut small pieces of ice cream into hot liquid; stir at once until melted. Chill until mixture is thickened but not set—amout 40 to 45 minutes. Fold in banana. Turn into Flaky Pastry Shell. Chill until firm—about 20 to 25 minutes. (The times given for thickening and chilling may vary, depending on individual refrigerators.) Garnish with banana slices.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Marilyn Joan Orton to J. Gene Stevens is being made by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Orton of 200 Patten St. Mr. Stevens is the son of Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Stevens of 516 Park St.

Miss Orton and her fiance have chosen Sunday, June 22, for their wedding which will take place at 2:30 o'clock, in the Salem Evangelical and Reformed Church. The custom of open church will be observed for the ceremony to be read by the pastor, the Rev. L. Harrison Ludwig.

The bride-elect is a senior at Harding High School. Mr. Stevens is a graduate of the Kelley Barber College at Columbus and is engaged in business with his father.

THE engagement of Miss Katherine Therese Brady of Cleveland, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Bernard S. Brady, to Frank James Dolesh Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Dolesh of Cleveland, is announced by her aunt, Miss Helen Brady of Cleveland Heights.

The bride-elect is a granddaughter of Mrs. John A. Schroeter of 417 E. Center St. who was a guest at the announcement party on Easter Sunday.

Miss Brady was graduated from Notre Dame College and attended the School of Social Service of Fordham University, New York. Her fiance holds a degree from Western Reserve.

An autumn wedding is planned.

Friday, May 30, has been chosen by Miss Phyllis Beers and Lowell R. Reeder for their wedding in the Methodist Church at Kirkpatrick. Miss Beers is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Beers of Kirkpatrick and Mr. Reeder is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Milton Reeder of Mt. Vernon.

The custom of open church will be observed for the ceremony to be read at 7:30 o'clock in the evening.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Kirkpatrick High School and Taylor University, Upland, Ind. She is an instructor of home economics in the Iberia School. Mr. Reeder, a graduate of the Mt. Vernon High School, is a student at the Cleveland Bible College. He is pastor of the South Vernon Chapel in Mt. Vernon.

Some 116 members of the Marion Country Club danced to the music of Bob Paxton at the monthly informal dance held Saturday night at the County Club. Theme of the dance was "Come Dance With Me."

Featured dances were The Paul Jones, "23" Skiddoo Tag, Charleston, Vo-Do-Dee-O Circle and Flappers' Choice.

Prizes for the best Charleston were won by Mrs. Warren Rowley Jr. and Lester VanDommelen. Judges were Mrs. William Hart, Mrs. David Rizor, E. J. Kinter and Fred Ormsby.

Members of the committee in charge of the dance were Mr. and Mrs. Don Yoder, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Rowley, Mr. and Mrs. William Buettin, Mr. and Mrs. Cass Sissler, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McKeever, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Mauk Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Vanee, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Douthitt, Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Busick and Mr. and Mrs. John Pickerel.

The Woman's Century Club held its closing meeting Tuesday night at the Federation Home with a six o'clock dinner. At the business session, Miss Margery Eymon, new president, spoke briefly. Mrs. Karl Schell was chosen program chairman for the coming year. A social hour followed.

Mrs. Charles Starcher of Claremont, Calif., arrived in Marion Sunday to spend several weeks visiting relatives and friends. The former Miss Marie Kull of Marion, she is staying at the home of her brother, August C. Kull of 566 Mound St.

RURAL LIFE SUNDAY

Rural Life Sunday services will be conducted Sunday, May 4, at 8 p.m. in the Morral Baptist Church. The Rev. E. L. Riggs of Marseilles Methodist Church will deliver a message. The observance is sponsored by Salt Rock Grange and is open to the public.

June 1 Wedding Planned By Miss Oiler, Fiance

MISS BARBARA OILER and her fiance, Frederick C. Binau, have chosen Sunday, June 1 for their wedding which will take place in an open church ceremony at Trinity Baptist Church. The pastor, Dr J. B. Holloway, will read the service at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

Miss Oiler, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Oiler of 184 E. Fairground St., has asked her sister, Mrs. John F. Hachten to be her matron of honor. Bridesmaid will be Mrs. Donald Schweinfurth and Miss Mary Ann Makeever will be junior bridesmaid. Flower girl will be Teresa Loverich, niece of Mr. Binau and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Loverich of Upper Sandusky. Robert Binau will serve as best man for his brother.

Mr. Binau is the son of Mrs. Bertha Binau of Upper Sandusky and Paul Binau of Cleveland.

Miss Oiler and her fiance are employed at the Marion Engineer Depot.

BACK WITH "HER BOYS." Mrs. Nellie (Ma) Kiefer of La Crosse, Wis., is embraced by two of her "adopted boys," George Fujikawa (left) and Sam Tanimoto, both Nisei veterans of World War II, on her arrival by Pan American Clipper in Honolulu. Ma Kiefer, who befriended Japanese-American soldiers stationed at Camp McCoy, Wis., during the last war, was invited to Hawaii to be the guest of American-Japanese Association veterans.

Weddings

Emanuel Lutheran Church was the scene of the wedding Sunday, April 20, of Phyliss Yvonne Blank, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Blank of near Marion, and Tyson Elder, son of Dr. and Mrs. N. J. Elder of Lakeview, O.

The Rev. M. E. Hollensen officiated for the ceremony at 2:30 p.m. The altar was decorated with palms, baskets of white gladioli and snapdragons, and two seven-branched candelabra. Family pews were marked with white satin bows.

Preceding the ceremony, a half hour program of organ music was presented by Mrs. Richard Curren.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length gown of white eyelet embroidery, featuring a bolero jacket and a full flared skirt over a crinoline underskirt. A pink ribbon encircled the waist, forming a bow in the back ending in streamers that extended to the hemline. She carried a white Bible topped with red roses and white carnations.

Miss Ivy Starkey of Athens served as maid of honor. Her gown was of pink embroidered organdy over taffeta, and she wore a large picture hat of blue horsehair braid and carried a bouquet of red roses and white carnations.

Russell Brady of Marion was best man, and ushers were Charles Broon of Wapakoneta and Don Huddelson of Marion.

A reception was held in the church basement immediately following the ceremony. Mrs. Jack O'Rourke and Mrs. Howard Davids assisted in serving. The table was decorated with spring flowers and a three-tiered wedding cake topped with miniature bride and groom.

When the couple left for a wedding trip to Florida, the new Mrs. Elder wore a gold and black checked suit with a gold flowered hat and black accessories. The couple will make their home in Lakeview, O.

The bride was graduated from Pleasant High School in 1949 and was employed as manager of the cosmetics department at the Gallaher Drug Co. Her husband is a graduate of the school of pharmacy at Ohio Northern University and is employed as a pharmacist in Lakeview.

The custom of taking scalps from victims in war was originally practiced by only a few tribes of American Indians but was spread to others by the practice of white governments which offered bounties for scalps.

58th Anniversary Observed By BRT Auxiliary

THE 58th anniversary of Pride of 35, Lodge 79, Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, was observed with a 6 o'clock dinner in the Vogue Room at the Marion Hotel Friday. Later there was inspection in the Central Labor Union Hall.

Covers were placed for 50 members and guests at a table arranged in the shape of a horseshoe and decorated with bouquets of jonquils and sweet pees. Favors were miniature umbrellas in red, white and green.

Mrs. Helen Dorr of Buffalo, N. Y., chairman of the grand executive board, conducted the inspection. Mrs. Marie Wilson presented Mrs. Dorr with a corsage of red roses and Mrs. Lois Wilson presented a bouquet of red roses to Mrs. Ruby Blake, president, from the auxiliary.

Nine past presidents were present and each was presented a white carnation. Two candidates were initiated. In a cake-walk the cake was won by Mrs. Dorothy Hentze. The cake was a gift to the auxiliary from the Past Presidents Club. Other awards were won by Mrs. Emma Humes and Mrs. Jean Berridge.

Plans were made for a mother-daughter 6 o'clock dinner at the next meeting, May 9. The following were named to serve as a social committee for the next three months: Mrs. Lois Williams, chairman, Mrs Lucy McMorrow, Mrs. Ruth Kelly, Mrs. Pearl Sidenstricker and Mrs. Naomi Beckley. Serving as a decorating committee will be Mrs. Carrn Foust, chairman, Mrs. Delores Lohr, Mrs. Frieda Klehm, Mrs. Virginia Diehl and Mrs. Martha Masters.

Guests included Mrs. Emadine Gump from Lodge 155, Mansfield, Mrs. Dolores Arnold, Kent Lodge 536 and Mrs. Ida Miller of Lakeview, a member of the local auxiliary.

Decorations for the dinner were in charge of Mrs. Patty Schlecht, chairman, Mrs. Verna Busler and Mrs. Dorothy Hentze.

Marion Garden Center Notes

FROST-TENDER PLANTS

Give attention this month to setting out frost-tender plants. In the flower garden zinnias, marigolds, morning glories, nasturtiums, four o'clocks. Plant bulbs of dahlias, begonias and tuberoses.

Plants that have been raised indoors and hardened are now ready for setting in the garden. Put out first the hardier kinds such as snapdragons, stocks, asters and petunias. As the weather warms follow with lantanas, geraniums, heliotropes and fuschias. Do not make the mistake of setting out the more tender kinds too early, because nothing is gained. Disturbing dry spells may occur in May. Give plenty of water when watering is necessary. Do not let newly set out plants suffer from dryness. Be sure that bulbs do not lack moisture during the entire time that their foliage is green.

After their foliage has completely browned remove it and lift the bulbs for summer storage or leave them in place and plant annuals over them if you prefer to do this. Nothing promotes growth and discourages weeds better than frequent surface cultivation. Care must be taken however against hoeing among shrubs that root right at the surface as do rhododendrons and azaleas. Pick dead flowers off lilacs as they fade.

Seed production is an exhausting process. Make sure that supports for peonies and other plants are in place early. Disbud peonies and roses if you want fine flowers for cutting. Towards the end of the months sow seeds of delphiniums, coreopsis, painted-daisies and other perennials in a cold frame or sheltered outdoor bed.

FIREMEN PUT OUT BLAZE

A rubbish fire was put out by firemen after it got out of control Wednesday afternoon at the rear of the John Lehner home at 203 S. State St. No damage resulted. Firemen from the Central station were called about 1:15 p.m.

In 1947 geologists discovered that the entire top of the mountain named Cerro Bolivar, in Brazil, is composed of high-grade iron ore.

Memories of Japan

By Hal Boyle

WASHINGTON

SO JAPAN IS FREE. How will it be from now on between us?

I wasn't one of those who fought their way to Japan, island by island, stepping stones of bitterness. No Japanese sniper ever fired at me. I never stayed awake all night in a Pacific ditch worrying whether a little brown man would creep up and slit my throat.

All my memories of Japan are pleasant.

I invaded it in comfort in the late summer of 1945. It was the dryest-footed amphibious landing ever made. I was with a bunch of Okinawa-trained Marines assigned to take an island in Tokyo Bay.

The Japanese had already waved the white flag, but there were three old gun positions on this island. And somebody decided that the island ought to be secured against the possibility that the Japs might pull a trick and try to sink the U.S. Navy.

So, cussing and praising the shores of Tripoli, the Marines loaded into the Higgins boats and roared off toward the island. The first object that came in sight was a bare-footed old Japanese lady prowling the beach with a basket of clams.

She heard the buzzing motors, turned—and there were the U.S. Marines rushing across the waves straight toward her, guns loaded. The old lady put her basket of clams on her head and ran for dear life. I will never forget her amazed fear.

"This is Japan?" said the Marine next to me as we waded ashore.

I guess it was quite a letdown for a man who'd fought on Okinawa.

WELL, WE WENT into Yokohama, Tokyo, looked down in awe from the turrets of the battleship Missouri as Gen. Douglas MacArthur signed the surrender terms.

The Japanese were furtive, frightened, or overbearingly polite then. They weren't sure what their conquerors might do. But on the third day of our stay in a hotel in Tokyo, the room boys started bringing us presents. Flowers. Just anold Japanese custom, but rather unnerving until you understand it.

I went to Japan again in 1950 shortly after the outbreak of the Korean war. The Japanese were as polite as ever, but no longer frightened. They had learned how to deal with our occupation forces—patiently.

There had been considerable bribery-through-entertainment of Americans by highly placed Japanese. There had been considerable needless throwing-around-of-weight by a number of Americans, suddenly eating higher on the hog than they ever had at home.

BUT, BY AND LARGE, it must have been one of the lightest military occupations in history. The Japanese accepted it with such grace and dignity there really wasn't much to make an issue over. They never lost their polite smile.

There have been a lot of friendships made between Americans and Japanese over there in the last seven year. Some are solid, and will last a long time, because it is easier for different human beings to understand each other than differing nations.

All that will be the same will be the smile. In Japan that never changes.

I suppose that one of the first things we'll have to do is go back to calling Emperor Hirohito by his proper title. The U. S. occupation troops always cheerfully referred to him as "Charley."

Somehow "Charley" had a friendly sound. I hope the echo lasts.

NINE-TIME QUEEN. Claudette Thornton of the films has something to be proud of besides that figure—nine military outfits named her pinup queen after her photo appeared in the Far Eastern edition of paper Stars and Stripes.

Key to Wall Street

By Inez Robb

NEW YORK

THERE IS A MAN in Castile, N. Y., whom I have never seen and of whom I had never heard until a week ago, who has wrought a profound change in my life and hard times.

He is Gordon W. Harvey, a member of the Genesee State Park Commission, who has at last made it possible for me to handle intelligently my own investments for the first time in my life.

This genius has given me the key to Wall Street, which, until Mr. Harvey came into my life, has been a closed book. Any day now I expect to emerge as the new Hetty Green.

This Mr. Harvey, and he must be a lovely man, says that the rise and fall of Lake Ontario is a sure-fire barometer of the nation's business condition.

If the lake is up, business is up; if the lake is down, business is on its face; it's as simple as that. Wall Street follows the water mark.

THIS IS ALL BASED ON a very thorough and scientific study made by Mr. Harvey. He has examined all the lake-level charts from 1850 until now.

Then he took business charts and graphs and compared them with the lake-level charts of Ontario. And you know what? Lake Ontario has the Dow theory, which I never could understand anyway, beat five ways from Sunday. Whenever the lake is high, business is dandy. But when the lake is low, business is terrible and Wall Street lays eggs.

The water in Lake Ontario started dropping in 1929, and so did brokers out of windows. In 1934-35, the end years of the great depression, the water in Ontario hit its lowest level. It began to pick up then, and now is nearing an all-time high and is still going up.

To me and to millions of other financial incompetents, R. Harvey's discovery is the biggest thing since the gold standard. It frees more financial serfs than the Emancipation Proclamation.

AT LONG LAST, I can take an active part in the management of that occasional $10 I have left over from my check and which has, for years, been invested by the head of Clan Robb and a Wall Street firm. Up to now, all they have ever let me do is sign proxies.

"From now on, don't go quoting those silly Dow-Jones averages to me, or Standard and Poor's or all that other ol'abra-cadabra that no one can understand except maybe Einstein,—I told Add.

"From now on, I am going to manage my own affairs and all I require of you and that investment counselor is a daily reading of the lake-level of Ontario. I always suspected this Wall Street stuff wasn't as mysterious and difficult as you men make out and now I know it."

The head of Clan Robb groaned. He said "that's what comes of teaching women to read. Gutenberg was no friend to man."

"So I just called up that investment house today and I told Mr. Granger that hereafter all I would require was a daily bulletin on the condition of Lake Ontario," I continued.

"You really didn't call David, did you?" he demanded.

"Certainly I did. I think it's high time he knows about Lake Ontario."

"What did he say;" Add wanted to know.

"WELL, HE DIDN'T ACT like you. He acted nice. He said he thought it was a very fine idea and just as accurate as any other Wall Street formula of which he had ever heard. He said after all it isn't as if Ontario is just any little old neighborhood lake. It's one of the Great Lakes and deserves respectful attention."

"Did he say anything else?"

"Yes, he said if I would just hang up, he would go out and buy himself a good stiff drink to steady his graphs."

N.Y. Stock Quotations

NEW YORK (INS)—The stock market sold off fractions to two points today under sharply increased offerings. It was the fourth successive declining session for the industrials and forced this key index clear through last November's critical support low. The previous 1952 bottom had been penetrated Wednesday.

Wall Street traders took their selling cue from the virtually complete shutdown of the nation's steel plants and indications that the effects were already spreading to other industries.

Rail shares, which had outrun the market on the upside for many weeks, were most vulnerable in today's setback. Union Pacific was down 2; Southern Pacific off 1⅞; Northern Pacific off ⅞; Santa Fe off ¾; and Missouri-Kansas-Texas preferred was down ⅝.

Although few losses among industrials exceeded fractional proportions a long list of favorites fell to new low ground for the year. American Viscose was off 1¼ points; Standard Oil of New Jersey off ¾; U.S. Steel off ½; Chrysler off ⅝; Ohio Oil off ¾; Bethlehem Steel off ⅝; Republic Steel off ½, and Du Pont off ½.

At 11 a.m. the Dow Jones industrial average was off $1.85; the rails were down $1.62; and the utilities were off 16 cents.

Volume for the first hour totaled 340,000 shares as against 250,000 Wednesday.

Vernon Pupil Wins Contest In Spelling

Mary Larsen Will Represent City In District Contest

Mary Larsen, eighth grade pupil at Vernon Heights Junior High School, won the spelling contest for pupils of the seventh and eighth grades it was announced today by Supt. Lester L. Dickey. She will represent the local junior high schools in the Central District Contest to be held May 24 at Columbus.

Mary, whose home is at 290 S. Grand Ave., competed with Violet Benson of 129 Fairview Ave., eighth grade pupil at State Street Junior High School and Harlan Banks of 1083 W. Center St., winner in the contest held at Edison Junior High School.

The finals were held this morning at the school administration building, when 50 words were given in a written test.

Contests were held two weeks ago at St. Mary Parochial School where the winner was Gladys Haanen, eighth grade pupil. Gladys went to Columbus last Saturday when contests for parochial school pupils of the Central Ohio District were held One of 11 contestants remaining, she missed the word cataclysmic. The 10 remaining pupils will be entered in the state contest. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Haanen of 273 S. Prospect St.

Politics

on the program tonight, Hoffman told reporters this morning.

Reminded that he was accepted as a substitute for Eisenhower only on the condition that he was speaking for the candidate, Hoffman said there is "confusion on this point."

"I'm going to have to take this up with the League of Women Voters," he added. "All I can do in my speech tonight is try to reflect what I think the General's views are, as accurately as possible."

Prepared Speeches

Such campaign issues as dishonesty and efficiency in government and aid to foreign countries will be discussed.

These two topics will be discussed by all candidates, all of whom have had time to prepare their speeches. Their answers to questions from the floor also have been rehearsed, the league announced.

The candidates are to meet together this afternoon for a little ceremony at City Hall. Mayor Carl Rich will present them the key to the city.

Democrats Talk Of Drafting Stevenson

By The Associated Press

The presidential panorama today: some Republicans disputed the meaning of the Massachusetts vote, some Democrats talked of a "draft".

Conflicting inferences were drawn from Tuesday's Massachusetts election by supporters of the front-running rivals for Republican nomination — Sen. Robert Taft of Ohio and Gen. Dwight Eisenhower.

Near-complete returns show Eisenhower got 69 per cent of the Republican vote in the popularity poll, and 27 of the 28 nominating convention delegate posts at stake. Thus, with 604 votes needed to nominate, The Associated Press compilation of delegate strength — based on concessions, pledges, instructions and statements—shows: Taft 274, Eisenhower 270. Taft forces claim more than 300.

In Washington, Massachusetts Sen. Leverett Saltonstall, an Eisenhower partisan, called the primary a "great groundswell." He said the general would get at least 34 of Massachusetts' total 38 delegates.

A Taft man, Sen. Milton Young of North Dakota, brushed this aside. Voting in the West and Midwest, he said, will tell a different and "more favorable" (to Taft) story.

Taft attributed the outcome to Democrats who voted as "Republicans for one day only." In Paris, Eisenhower's comment was: "Overwhelming—it has begun to look sort of serious."

Democratic leaders, meanwhile, talked of a new movement to draft Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois for the nomination. The governor, saying he was running for re-election, bowed out of contention but recently said he would be "flattered" if the party thought he could be of more service in the White House.

In Washington, a move was underway—backed by some party leaders skilled in convention maneuvering—to take Stevenson at his latest word. This group was described as being opposed to Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, tops so far in delegate strength, and at least indifferent to the other avowed aspirants: Sen. Richard Russell of Georgia, Sen. Robert Kerr of Oklahoma and Mutual Security Director W. Averell Harriman.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Bodley Celebrate Golden Wedding

OSCAR BODLEY

MRS. OSCAR BODLEY

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Bodley of Richwood, married 50 years ago May 1 in Marion, will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary with a family dinner Saturday, and open house for relatives and friends at their home Sunday afternoon and evening. Their home is at 126 N. Clinton St., Richwood, and the open house hours will be from 2 until 7.

Te wedding took place May 1, 1902, at the parsonage of the old Calvary Evangelical Church in Marion with the Rev. John Henry Martin officiating. Mrs. Minerva Stull of Delaware Ave., in Marion, was a witness.

As the bride of 50 years ago, Mrs. Bodley was Miss Ida Mae Stull, daughter of John and Mary Boettger Stull of Marion. She was a graduate of the old Marion High School in 1901. Her husband was a native of Union County, born near Ostrander. His parents were Frank and Martha Robinson Bodley. Mrs. Bodley was born near Lexington.

Mr. Bodley is a retired farmer. He is 76, and Mrs. Bodley is 70. Both have been active in church work for years and are still able to take part at the Baptist Church in Richwood.

They are parents of four children, Mrs. Edna Kennedy of Marion, Mrs. Hazel Coutcher of Toledo, Homer Bodley of Follansbee, W. Va., and Mrs. Mildred Harper of near Green Camp. Their seven grandchildren are Roger, Ray and Donna Bodley, Norma and Cheryl Harper, Allen Kennedy and Marcia Jane Coutcher.

75-Piece Group Performs

600 Attend Annual Harding Band Concert

An audience of about 600 persons heard the annual concert by the Harding High School band presented Wednesday night at the New Ohio Theater.

Under the direction of Homer Huffman, instrumental music supervisor in the city schools, the band of about 75 pieces presented a program of overtures, marches and modern novelty numbers.

One selection by the band, the suite, "American Weekend," Morrissey, was directed by George Lane, assistant conductor. The composition is comprised of four descriptive sections, picnic outing, evening stroll, concert in the park and stepping out.

Mr. Huffman, in recognition of his work throughout the year, was presented a portable radio by the seniors in the band. The presentation was made by Eddie Porter, band president.

Honors Seniors

Following the presentation, Mr. Huffman gave special recognition to the seniors who were appearing for their last formal concert with the band. Seniors in the band include Sandra Askew and Nancy Pendleton, flutes; Regina Cleveland, Barbara Clements, secretary, Beverly Beveridge, Marilyn Green, Corine Levien and Ronnie Owens, drum major, clarinets; Marilyn Sifritt and Betty Weatherbee, alto saxophones; Nora Boone, horn; Tom Tatham, Roger Fick, Ronald Almendinger and Bob Davis, cornets and trumphets; Clyde Masters, trombone; Eddie Porter, bass; Nelson Luke, Joy Garver, and Sallyann Knickle, percussion; Rosella Gettys and Sue Smith, majorettes; and Joan Wolfe and JoAnn Davis, managers.

The program by the band included the following numbers: the National Anthem; "Colonel Bogey," march, Alford; "Fraternity," Clarke, an overture; "Pomposo," Hayes, featuring a sousaphone solo by Eddie Porter; "Slavonic Rhapsody," Friedmann; "Revolutionary Overture," Moore, a novelty number in which the student director, Nelson Luke, takes over conducting the band; "March" from "Second Suite," Holst; "Trio For Trumpets," Darcy, with Tom Tatham, Roger Fick and Ron Almendinger as soloists; "American Weekend," Morrissey; "The Klaxon," Fillmore, a march; "Cabins," Gillette, an American rhapsody; "Look for the Silver Lining" and "They Didn't Believe Me," Kern-Yoder; and "Tropical," Gould.

Plays School Song

As an encore, the band played a modern rhythmic novelty tune, "Hand Me Down My Swinging Cane," and to close the program the band presented "The Red and Black," the school fight song written by Richard Myers.

Special solo parts throughout the concert were played by Ermin Seckel, Don Couch, Tom Tatham, Roger Fick, Ron Almendinger, Clyde Masters, Tom Hayman, Eddie Porter, Marilyn Sifritt, Ronnie Stauffer, Janet Roberts, Jim Ferguson, Jerry Wingett and Shirley Mathias.

Other members of the band, in addition to the seniors, include: Julia Gorman and Larry Evans, flutes; Janet Roberts, Librarian oboe; Ermin Seckel, Don Couch, Betty Kech, Pat Clingenpeel, Susan Williams, Marilyn Patrick, Annette Felder, Carol Hoch, Rosemary Roddy, Melba Richardson, Edna McWherter and Jackie Constable, clarinets; Martha Mason and Sara Meister, bassoons; Marlene Davis, alto clarinet; Paul Foster, bass clarinet; Janet Born and Don Robinson, tenor saxophones; Ron Stauffer, librarian, Jack Roberts and Beverly Cook, alto saxophones; Carol Bachman, Steve Lytle, Dale Tewalt, Rosemary Baxter, Evelyn Price and Rachel Davis, horns; Bob Boltz, Gavin Kemmerly, Bob Jones, Jim Mason, Kenneth Mischler; Jerry Emery and Daniel Keggan, cornets and trumpets; Tom Hayman, Roger Walraven, Roy Roddy and John Lucas, trombones; Jim Ferguson, Jerry Wingett and Shirley Mathias, baritones; Ted Pollock, Hal Hammond and Kenneth Kirkpatrick, basses; Joe Donithen, Jim Ziegler and Joan Bailey, percussion; Nancy Hammond, majorette.

Oil Strike

Between 250 and 300 members of the CIO union met Wednesday night and voiced protest of Ching's announcement. They said the reported agreement was false and put them in the role of strike breakers. The CIO union branded the announcement by Ching "an absolute untruth."

Ching had said the agreement provided for a 15-cent hourly wage hike and the unions' differential demands.

Non-striking AFL union members in northwest Texas Wednesday night agreed to a new contract with the Phillips Petroleum Co. The agreement grants a general wage increase of 16 cents an hour, retroactive to Oct. 1, 1951 and night diffential pay ranging from 4 to 6 cents an hour in the afternoon to 6 to 12 cents at night.

Reds Ready To Talk Truce Terms Again

MUNSAN, Korea (AP)—Truce negotiators scheduled a crucial session Friday to hear the Communist reply to the United Nations package proposal for reaching a Korean armistice.

The Reds today asked for the full dress session after studying the secret allied plan three days.

There was no indication whether the Communists would reject, accept or make a counter proposal.

Blocking progress in the nearly 10 months old negotiations were the issues of prisoner exchange. Russian participation in an armistice and rehabilitation of military airfields during an armistice.

Steel

peal is ruled upon by the Supreme Court.

Legality Issue Unchanged

The 5 to 4 Appeals Court ruling staying Pine's decision in no way upset the lower court's opinion that Truman exceeded executive powers in ordering the steel seizure. The appeals tribunal didn't rule on the legality of seizure.

It merely stayed the effect of injunctions until the Supreme Court itself can review the Pine decision. If the Supreme Court refuses to take the case, the Appeals Court can review Pine's decision. At any rate, the seizure is preserved for an indefinite period.

Back before the Appeals Court today, steel industry lawyers asked the court to attach a further condition to the stay—one prohibiting the government, while it retains the plants, from altering "the terms and conditions of employment" except on the express consent of management or in the event of a collective bargaining agreement for changes between private management and the CIO Steelworkers union.

Acting Attorney General Perlman went immediately to the court to oppose it. He was accompanied by Holmes Baldridge, assistant attorney general, and other aides, who initially handled the legal tangle in the District Court.

Perlman personally entered the case Wednesday by appearing in the Appeals Court with a fervent plea for a stay of the Pine injunction, asserting that "the fate of the nation" might hang on the outcome of the litigation.

The steel companies told the Appeals Court that while their injunction case was in the district court, the government was preparing to change wage rates and working conditions.

Steelmen's Petition

The petition said:

"The record discloses that at any moment the appellant (the federal court) will carry out his pending threat to change the employment conditions.

"This change will impose increased wages and other employment costs involving millions of dollars which will be paid from the appellees' (steel companies) funds, and, even more seriously, will drastically alter each appellee's bargaining position with a powerful union.

"For this injury, the appellees have no remedy except this motion—otherwise they are helpless."

Meanwhile, the task was to restore steel production. The strike, starting Tuesday night after Pine's ruling, quickly spread to close down virtually the entire industry. More than 300,000 tons of scarce steel production—vital for defense and civilian needs—were being lost daily during the walkout.

Murray has said he will come to no new contract agreement with steel companies at less than the government's Wage Stabilization Board (WSB) recommendation. This calls for an eventual 26-cents-an-hour boost in wages and working conditions. Steelworkers now average about $2 an hour, including overtime.

The gist of the industry argument against staying the effect of Pine's injunctions was that the strike could be stopped by a Taft-Hartley injunction, that Pine's ruling was correct, and there was no assurance a stay would stop the walkout.

"This is a strike against the judiciary—it's a punishment to the citizens because a judge did his duty," Bruce Bromley, Bethlehem Steel attorney, said for the industry.

The government maintained Pine was wrong in his conception of presidential powers and contended seizure was the "only possible" way of getting the strike ended.

"It is imperative," said Perlman, "that everything be done to keep the steel mills of the country operating. Every minute counts. Every second counts."

How Judge Voted

The five appeals judges voting in the majority were Henry W. Edgerton, Charles Fahy, David L. Bazelton, E. Barrett Prettyman and George T. Washington. Their brief opinion said they acted to preserve jurisdiction over the case for their court and the Supreme Court.

The dissenters were Chief Judge Harold M. Stephens and Judges Bennett Champ Clark, Wilbur K. Miller and James M. Proctor. Their opinion was also brief, merely saying: "We are of the opinion that the government has made no showing which would justify this court in staying Judge Pine's order."

Marines Face Atomic Tests

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—The United States Marines planned to observe May Day in typical fashion today, going through their first atomic maneuver.

With clearing weather, nuclear scientists are expected to provide a blast over Yucca Flat sometime after 9:15 a.m., Pacific Daylight time (11:15 a.m., Eastern Standard time).

Lions Club Members Tour Plant

Members of the Lions Club toured the Arro Expansion Bolt Co. offices and plant after the club's regular luncheon meeting at Hotel Harding Monday.

During the short business session, before the tour, Jackson H. Taft, campaign chairman of the Cancer Crusade in Marion County, reported on results of the Cancer Crusade. Max Sechrist announced that Thomas Bain will show slides and pictures of microscopic life for next week's program.

Members then traveled to the Arro Expansion Bolt Co. plant on Boone Ave., where John Dugan, a club member and sales manager of the firm, conducted a tour.

See Anchoring Devices

Club members saw the facilities used to manufacture the company's line of anchoring and drilling devices which are distributed nationally through hardware, mill supply, and electrical supply jobbers. Arro is one of the nation's largest producers of these items.

The company was founded in 1920 by George R. Flora, who is president and general manager. It manufactures a variety of mechanical fastening devices for anchoring to masonry, and also produces allied products such as drills for boring holes in masonry in which the fastening devices are inserted and expanded.

Arro products are used for securing machinery to concrete floors, for industrial plant maintenance, for making electrical installations, and for anchoring signs, fixtures, etc. to masonry walls. Many of their expansion bolts are used in construction of buildings, railroads, roads, and bridges.

View Machinery

Club members viewed the stamping and die casting machinery on which Arro parts are made, and the assembling facilities where units are completed and packaged for shipment. They visited the sizeable additions the company has built in the course of its expansion since the end of World War II, including the new offices and a large warehouse completed last year.

Ohio Teacher Had No "Suit," Court Decides

DETROIT (AP) — A 42-year-old Ohio music teacher was "in the nude, or unclad," a Federal Court jury decided in returning a verdict of no cause for action in her $120,000 damage suit.

The jury of seven women and five men deliberated for one hour yesterday in the case brought by Miss Edith Church of Maumee, O., against officers who arrested her in a raid on a nudist camp.

The decision cleared Monroe County Sheriff Ray Ginsler, former County Prosecutor Foster D. Luse and state police of charges of false arrest brought by Miss Church.

Federal Judge Frank A. Picard told the jury to decide the single question of whether Miss Church was dressed or undressed when the raid began in August, 1946.

As a result of the raid Miss Church and eight other nudists were convicted of indecent exposure and fined $150 in Monroe County Circuit Court.

During the trial State Police Sgt. Carl Swim had described Miss Church as being nude when raiders arrived. Other officers said she hastily donned a sunsuit.

Miss Church, who said she lost her job as a result of the publicity, claimed she was fully clad in a halter and shorts.

Appeals

what he termed a "forward movement" and stated the CIO stood ready to assist in any way possible. Brockmeyer told how the United Appeals worked successfully in Columbus, adding that the local problem would have to be solved in a way to meet the needs of the community.

Robert Lick of the Manufacturers Council stated that organization had voted unanimously in favor of the united campaign, and Ray Beverly, representing the Central Labor Union, expressed that organization's support and his belief that such a campaign would be a success. Payroll deduction, he said, is an absolute necessity. John Pickerel stated that after a poll of retail merchants, support of such a campaign was nearly 100 per cent. Real estate men contacted were for the measure 100 per cent, Joseph Davis reported. Ellis Oiler, representing the local CIO, expressed the belief that a United Appeals campaign answers local needs and voiced approval of the payroll deduction plan. The Rev. Ashley Booth of the Ministerial Association stated that while no official action had been taken, a United Appeals campaign is favored by the members.

Save Time, Work

J. B. Bray, retired industrialist who has been active in local campaigns many years and who for the last several years has been active in the work of the Community Foundation presented figures showing that approximately $160,000 had been contributed in various local campaigns since November 1951. This sum, contributed in individual drives, could be contributed and pledged in one major campaign, with a minimum of effort and time on the part of the workers, at far less cost, and certainly with less time and effort on the part of the contributor. Citing the advantages Mr. Bray said a combined campaign would save time and man power, reduce sales resistance, provide wider coverage, assure top solicitation, provide a more general response on the part of givers and reduce campaign expenses. He expressed the belief that Marion is ready for a United Appeals campaign and added that "every time people of Marion make up their mind to do something, they get a lift in community pride and spirit which works for a community good."

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Gushing Oil, winner of the Louisiana and Arkansas derbies and owned by Texas oil man Sam Wilson Jr., was the first horse entered today for Saturday's running of the $100,000 added Kentucky Derby.

Marion Man Wins Phi Beta Kappa Honors

Ohio University junior Daniel W. Chapman of 243 Kenmore Ave., will be initiated into Phi Beta Kappa, national scholastic honor society, Friday, the university reported today. He is one of 19 Ohio University students to be honored at this initiation and banquet.

A physics and mathematics student, Chapman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Chapman of Marion. He is a graduate of Columbus St. Charles High School, where he was an honor student.

Chapman has held both a freshman and a Columbia Downing scholarship at Ohio University. He is planning to attend graduate school after he receives his bachelor of science degree

Fly Flags On Election Day, Legion Urges

In an effort to remind citizens of the patriotic nature of election day, American Legion Post 162 of Marion is launching a campaign to have American flags flown throughout the city Tuesday.

The post has enlisted the support of the Retail Board of Managers of the Marion Chamber of Commerce and plans have been made to fly the flag in front of stores in the downtown area, Fred Thacker, post commander, reported today.

He urged Marion residents with flags to fly them at their homes Tuesday as well.

"Elections are an example of democracy in action," he said. "Flying the American Flag will call our attention to the patriotic nature of election day and remind us of our duty to vote."

Similar projects have met with considerable success in other cities. In Toledo, for example, the American Legion flies a "mile of flags" along a prominent bridge in the city every election day.

Ship Crash

human error or mechanical failure?

2. Did either ship fail to signal a change of course when the carrier turned into the wind to take on 10 of her planes which were aloft in the night maneuver?

3. Was there misjudgment of the closing rate of speed and the course?

4. What was the precise visibility? Capt. B. C. McCaffree of the Wasp has said the night began "clear but very dark with overcast at 8,000 feet, seas calm and winds light."

The dispatch from the Wasp last night said all ships were darkened and "external lights extinguished" except for flight deck lights on the carrier.

The Wasp reported all her engines were at full backing speed when she struck the Hobson. But a ship of her size—31,000 tons—operating at normal speed, may need as much as three miles to come to a complete stop.

ASIDE FROM this revealing mass of deception and prevarication, the fact comes through clearly that both Willkie and Roosevelt were willing to wreck the political parties which had honored them with nominations and form a new one for certain vague, undefined, "liberal" objectives

My own opinion is that Roosevelt was engaged in a cat-and-mouse game with Willkie If he could in that way drive a deep fissure into the Republican Party, enlisting Willkie in such an enterprise, his own success in 1944 and perhaps in years to come would be secure Ultimately, Willkie would have found, as did nearly everybody else, that when it suited the Roosevelt convenience he, too, would be scuttled

The willingness of Willkie to entertain such a proposal is easy to understand on the background of Mrs Dillon's book After his defeat in the Wisconsin primary in the spring of 1944, he was an embittered, almost desperate man He could never realize that he had lost the support of Republican leaders because he had neglected, criticized, and occasionally abused them. His view of it was that they were too dumb, benighted, and selfish to understand his high ideals He said that Dewey had no principles and could not be elected And so he died after doing what he could to make Republican success impossible

$291 Missing In Crawford Co. School Breakins

Special To The Star

BUCYRUS—A series of burglaries of Crawford County schools is being investigated by Sheriff Ralph E Schreck, who reported four rural schools, along with Bucyrus High School and Sycamore School in Wyandot County, have been broken into during the past few weeks, and a total of $291 50 reported missing

The latest buglaries occurred Monday night at Sulphur Springs and Chatfield schools Loss at Sulphur Springs, where entrance was gained by forcing a window, was $10. At Chatfield about $1 50 in cash was taken A basement door window was broken to gain entrance to the Chatfield school

About $50 was taken from the superintendent's and principal's office at Bucyrus High School several weeks ago Other breakins occurred at Holmes-Liberty School, northwest of here, where nothing was taken and at Lykens where $5 was missing The loss at Sycamore School amounted to $225

Authorities believe the burglars may be youths as several bottles of milk have been consumed at the various schools

★Of Lieut. James A. Clement, May 1, 1944.

We loved him so while here on earth,
And round his memory we a crown have placed;
For we can ne'er forget his sterling worth,
Nor all the deeds his kindly heart once graced:
And, so God saw the way was getting rough
The hills were hard to climb
He safely closed the weary eyes and whispered
"Peace be thine"

Forest Lawn PTA Elects New Officers

Wilson Dallas was elected president of Forest Lawn PTA for the 1952-1953 school year at the group's last meeting of the season held recently in the school. Other new officers are Mrs. Robert McCombs, first vice president; Darl Gatchell, second vice president; Mrs. John Schilling, secretary, and Robert Romoser, treasurer.

The Rev. Carl N. Lauer led devotions. A musical program was presented under the direction of Mrs. John Sallsbury, director of instrumental music at the school. Several selections were given by the band and orchestra, and special numbers included saxophone solos by Howard Klehm and Bobby Middleton, a trumpet duet by Peggy Fleming and Lois Roddy, clarinet solos by Donna Seneff and Judith Jones, and a violin solo by Carol Boxwell.

The fifth grade received honorable mention for parent attendance. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Don Leonhart, Mrs. Wilda Ballinger and Mrs. D. W. Seneff.

Memorial Day Committee Organized

First meeting of the Memorial Day General Committee was held Tuesday night in the American Legion Dugout with all veterans organizations of the city represented.

Elected general chairman of the committee for the next year was D. J. MacDonald, while Miss Emily Woftel was elected secretary, and Chester A. Dye, treasurer.

Also elected were president and vice president of the day to officiate at the Memorial Day services at the cemetery. Named to these respective positions were Elmer Bondley, a Spanish-American War veteran, and James E. Thomas, a veteran of World War II.

Chairman of committees to make arrangements for the Memorial Day observance were named as follows: G. R. Messenger, music; Craig M. Rogers, speakers; Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Messenger, grave markings; Harry G. Baker, program; C. W. Stafford, seating and grounds; and Miss Wolfel, publicity.

Reports of standing committees were given and plans were discussed for the Memorial Day parade this year and the program to follow at the cemetery.

The next meeting of the committee will be held May 20 at 8 p.m. in the Dugout.

Competes For World Markets

Jap Trade Picks Up With New Freedom

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—American businessmen expect Japanese trade competition to mount now that she is free again.

Occupied Japan was already making great strides toward recapturing her old trading position. England particularly was feeling the pinch as Japanese textiles and metal products moved into markets the British like to supply.

As Japanese trade grows with India, Pakistan and Indonesia, the depressed British textile industry will have still a harder fight to keep going. Nor will our own textile exporters like it.

Japanese goods have been moving into the United States in increasing quantities as she rebuilt her industries during the occupation. Much of this regrowth of Japan's world trade was fostered by occupation policies aimed at getting her back on her financial feet and less of a fiscal burden to the United States.

But American businessmen have complained at the competition offered in many lines—metal products, gloves, pottery, toys, and textiles.

Complaints have stressed the inability of American manufacturers to compete in price with Japanese goods made by workmen whose pay scales are so much lower. And some American manufacturers have charged that the quality of Japanese goods was inferior to American items, making price competition still more one-sided.

THE JAPANESE appear all set for a new trade drive. Offices of Japanese consulates opened as the peace treaties were put into effect. American exporters and importers were urged to contact the consuls for commercial information.

Tokyo's envoy to London started the ball to rolling for a new trade treaty. He said competition for world markets would be sharp between his country and Britain, but promised that the Japanese would keep it fair. The British on several cases since the end of the fighting have charged the Japanese with dumping goods at unfair prices to capture markets from British traders.

The battle hasn't all been over textiles. The Japanese have been exporting electrical appliances, heavy and light machinery and other metal products.

The British have been glad, however, to get some steel from Japan to help make up the English shortage. Japan's shipment of 109,000 tons of steel to England is small stuff compared to the American pledge to ship one million tons of the scarce metal, but Japan is offering to send more, and the British need it.

JAPANESE SHIP LINES are rebuilding, too. During the first quarter of this year, the American Bureau of Shipping reports, Japanese took 14 of the 19 merchant ships completed in shipyards around the world. Four of these freighters were built in Japanese shipyards. Before Pearl Harbor Japan was one of the leading shipping nations.

In Tokyo, legislation is being considered which would permit formation of associations of exporters to build up the nation's foreign trade.

And Japanese have just got orders from Chile for 20 locomotives.

This time the Japanese aren't out just to sell knicknacks to dime stores. They want to be a major industrial nation, exporting their products everywhere.

A unique attraction for tourists in the Hartz Mountains is a large supply of snow stored in abandoned mines, enabling visitors to engage in snowball contests throughout the summer, reports the German tourist office.

Special "get-acquainted" offer brings you Friskies—a complete dog food with a 20-year record of success!

NOW YOU CAN feed your dog the way the professionals do! Give him the full benefit of Friskies' famous complete nourishment!

THE FRISKIES FORMULA is the proud result of more than 50 years of research in animal nutrition! It was developed after years of testing with all sizes and types of dogs at the Friskies Research Kennels on the famous Carnation Milk Farm near Seattle.

WHEN YOU FEED FRISKIES, you can be certain that your dog is getting every single food element dogs are known to need! Remember .. every ingredient in Friskies is carefully selected and tested to measure up to only the very highest standards!

COSTS LESS THAN HALF AS MUCH TO FEED

One 2 lb. package of Friskies Meal contains as much moisture-free food as 6 cans of average dog food.

GUARANTEE Your dog is guaranteed to like Friskies or your money back

FEED YOUR DOG AS EXPERTS HAVE BEEN DOING FOR 20 YEARS!

9 out of 10 Kennel Owners Feed a Dry-Type Food Like Friskies!

IT'S TRUE! No longer is it a secret why so many professional dog breeders feed Friskies!

THESE EXPERTS feed Friskies because it is one food that is scientifically balanced to provide every single food element dogs are known to need for complete nourishment!

Meat alone not enough!

YOUR DOG can be undernourished when fed even the most expensive meat. Friskies is far more nourishing than meat alone...and since dogs can actually smell each of the 19 ingredients individually, Friskies gives variety at every meal!

Millions of dogs love its "meaty" smell and flavor!

NOT ONLY will your dog go for Friskies, but you will save money! No costly "extras" are needed! When you feed Friskies, that's all your dog needs! So, you save on expensive "extra" meat, "extra" liver, "extra" milk, and "extra" eggs.

CHANGE TO FRISKIES PROFESSIONAL FEEDING method to keep your dog well-fed and frisky... and save money as well. Change to Friskies today... and look for the sure signs of a healthy, happy dog.

FRISKIES CUBES • Same famous formula in crunchy, bite-size morsels that exercise your dog's teeth and gums. Nothing to add ..not even water Like Friskies Meal, Friskies Cubes is a complete food Serve both for variety!

Offer good only while special "get-acquainted" packages last!

Customers' Corner

"'Round and 'round they go"

Traditionally on May 1, the children go 'round and 'round the Maypole singing their songs of Spring.

Going 'round and 'round in circles is fine for children, but not for adults. These days many of them are doing just that — for there's no end to trying to make ends meet, especially when you want to feed your family well.

Your A&P invites you to try regular shopping at our stores to beat the spiral of the high cost of living. It has been our aim for over 90 years now to provide more and better food to more people for less money. Perhaps we can help with your food problems, too. Come, see.

250 Union Co. Tickets Sold for Columbus Zoo

Special to The Star

MARYSVILLE—Approximately 250 family membership tickets to the Columbus Zoo were sold here on the public square when the "Traveling Zoo" came to Marysville. The Columbus Zoo, eighth largest in the nation, is a favorite visiting spot for people of Marysville and Union County.

Zoo family membership tickets are being sold in Marysville, Richwood, Plain City and Milford Center business places and by the Union County Farm Bureau and Grange organizations. Tom Knuckles of Marysville, Union County zoo membership chairman, said today that more than 200 family memberships have been issued outside Marysville in Union County.

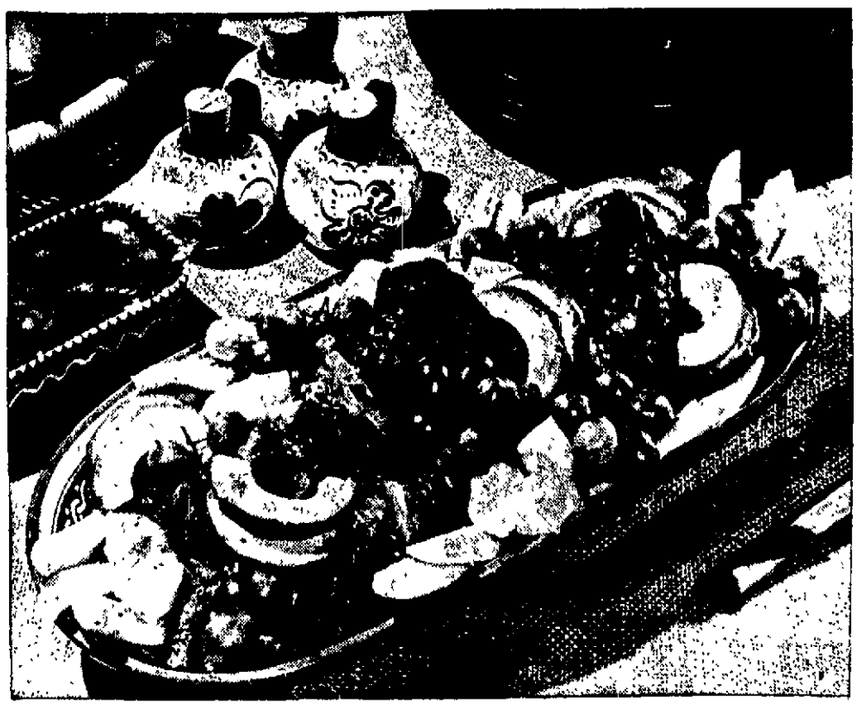
Chicken Recipe Goes South for Tropical Treat



Praises and acclaims will be heard when you serve this tantalizing tropical treat. Versatile, economical chicken goes south of the border to combine with fresh fruits for an exotic, but simple-to-prepare, platter meal.

CHICKEN MEXICANA

1 4-lb. chicken, disjointed
2 cups boiling water
2 T chili powder
¼ t pepper
¼ t cinnamon
2 T grated onion
1 t monosodium glutamate
½ lb. white grapes
1 t salt
¼ cup fat or drippings
2 cups pineapple juice
2 cups pineapple chunks
1 t sugar
2 bananas, sliced
1 ripe avocado

Place chicken in deep kettle; add boiling water, chili powder, pepper, cinnamon, grated onion, monosodium glutamate and salt. Cover; simmer 1 hour. Drain chicken; brown on all sides in fat or drippings; arrange in baking pan. Add pineapple juice to broth in which chicken was cooked; heat and pour over chicken.

Arrange pineapple chunks over chicken; sprinkle with sugar. Bake in moderately hot oven, 375 F., 30 minutes. Remove chicken and fruit to serving dish; garnish with lengthwise slices of banana, avocado slices and grapes. Serve gravy separately.

Youth Suffers Leg Fracture In Farm Accident

Special to The Star

SYCAMORE—James Case, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Case of near Sycamore, suffered a broken right leg when a tractor ran over him on his father's farm Wednesday at 7:30 p.m.

The tractor was driven by Richard Smith, 14, and the accident occurred as the two boys were returning to the barn after cultivating a field. The injured youth was riding and fell off the tractor.

As he fell the tractor stopped but it stopped on his leg, which was broken below the knee. The boy also suffered multiple bruises. He was taken to a Sycamore physician and later to the Wyandot Memorial Hospital where he was admitted. He was reported in "good" condition today.

Both boys attend Eden School.

Extend Trailer Tax Deadline

The deadline for the 1952 house trailer rental tax has been extended to Saturday noon, Marion County Auditor Maurice Clements reported today.

The original deadline was Wednesday but because so many persons have not yet paid their tax, the deadline has been extended. A $50 penalty will be levied against those who do not pay their tax by the extended deadline, he said.

The tax is $18 and is levied against inhabited trailers parked in Marion County. The money is placed in the general fund of the county. To date $225 has been collected. In 1951 a total of $266 was collected for the trailer tax, Clements said.

Work Started On Reed Ave. Sewer

Work has begun on construction of the Reed Ave. storm water sewer, City Engineer Tom Cathers announced Thursday.

The sewer will connect the Ququa sewer and a sewer already running along Reed Ave. It will run about 300 feet down an alley between Columbia St. and Mt. Vernon Ave. east of Reed Ave.

Brief Explorer Scouts on Trip

The first briefing session for Explorer Scouts who will attend the August Explorer Encampment in Philmont, N.M., was held Wednesday night in the Boy Scout office on E. Church St.

Plans were outlined by John Teetor and Robert Cheetham, adult advisors who will accompany the 20 boys. A Greyhound bus has been chartered for the 2,800 mile round trip. A different route has been planned for the return trip to permit the group to see a greater section of the country, Field Scout Executive Cheetham announced.

The 10-day stay at the Scout ranch in New Mexico will include hiking in the Rocky Mountains, tracking predatory animals, trout fishing, and nature and geological study, as well as practice of basic Scout camping skills.

The encampment begins Aug. 2, and three days will be allowed for the trip down, Cheetham said. Boys from Marion, Bucyrus, Cardington, Johnsville and Upper Sandusky will take part in the project.

A few reservations are still available, according to Teetor, a neighborhood commissioner. "Any Explorer Scout interested in making the western tour should contact the Scout office or his Explorer advisor immediately," he announced.

McMillen Employes Guests at Dinner

Employes of McMillen Feed Mills were guests at a dinner meeting Tuesday night in the Snyder Hotel. Those attending were Mrs. Ray McDonald and Paul Thibaut, traffic department; Richard G. Hupp, feed mill; Donald E. Rupp and Robert C. Teets, solvent plant; Frank M. Gray, Billy W. Easton, Louis N. Hughes, Paul M. Green and Clyde Beckel, maintenance and repair; Mrs. Fern McIntire and Mrs. La Verna Pratt, office; Robert W. Fay, plant manager, and Tim Wyant, personnel director.

Following the dinner, Fay led a group discussion on problems and questions presented by the employes on various phases of the plant operation.

Stanky Leads Cardinals To Win In First Starting Role

Paces St. Louis To 14-2 Cuffing Of Brooklyn.

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Cagy Eddie Stanky picked the right spot to throw his "intangibles" into his St. Louis Cardinal starting lineup.

Beaten Tuesday night by Brooklyn's Preacher Roe for the eighth straight time and wandering two games under .500, Manager Stanky finally pulled the sheets off Second Baseman Stanky.

The impact of Stanky's presence in the lineup against Brooklyn could be seen in the very first inning. "Stanky walked" the play-by-play read. Before the first inning was over it also read "Stanky doubled down the left field line, Westlake and Bilko scoring." The Cards scored six runs in that first inning, knocking out Christ Van Eyck.

Stanky walked twice more before the night was over while Gerry Staley, his ace, became the first four-time winner in the major leagues this season. It was his ninth straight since last August.

EDDIE STANKY

Hits Grand Slam

Red Schoendienst, shifted to third base, took to his new position like a duck to water. He handled four chances faultlessly and smashed a bases-loaded home run off Bud Podbielan in the fifth inning.

While the debut of Stanky and the Brooks' crushing 14-2 defeat stole the play in the National League, the American was saying its farewells to two fine ball players — Ted Williams of the Boston Red Sox and Gerry Coleman of the New York Yankees.

Both Williams and Coleman left them laughing when they said goodbye—in fact, Williams might even reconsider and play one more game.

Ted entrenched the rookie-laden Red Sox in first place with a two-run homer, his first of the year, to beat Detroit, 5-3. It was the 324th of his brilliant 10-year big league career.

Williams, who reports for flying duty as a Marine Corps captain at Willow Grove, Pa. Friday, hit his homer off Reliefer Dizzy Trout in the seventh inning for Rookie Ivan Delock's second big league win.

Coleman, also a Marine Corps captain who reports Friday at Los Alamitos, Calif., Air Base, starred as the Yanks split a doubleheader with the St. Louis Browns. The World War II vet of 57 dive bombing missions bowed out with two hits in each game to finish with a heady .405 average.

"Satch" Relieves

Despite Coleman's hitting and a homer, double and single by Mickey Mantle, the Yanks lost the opener to the Brownies, 6-4. Bob Cain received some fine relief help from old Satch Paige to whip the world champs.

Allie Reynolds earned the Yanks a split with a four-hitter in the second game, 4-1. He struck out eight in defeating Lou Sleater.

The Chicago White Sox swept a twi-night doubleheader from Washington, 7-3 and 4-3, winning the second on Eddie Robinson's 11th inning homer off Bobo Newsom. Four-hit pitching by Billy Pierce and Harry Dorish checked the Senators in the opener.

Bob Addis' double in the 12th was the final blow of the Chicago Cubs' 20-hit blasting of seven Philadelphia pitchers for a 9-8 edge. The win put the Cubs in second place. Dutch Leonard, 42-year-old knuckleball artist, grabbed his first win of the year on relief.

Pittsburgh broke its 10-game losing streak with an 11-5 decision over Boston despite home runs by Ed Mathews, Ebba St. Claire and Earl Torgenson. Murry Dickson, a 20-game winner in '51, made the win circle after losing his first three.

Patty Berg Moves Into Men's Domain

Shoots Record 64 Over 6,300-Yard California Course

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP)—Patty Berg, the now grownup girl golfer, shot a score of 30-34—64 over a course measuring better than 6,300 yards out at Richmond, Calif., the other day, and we feel that the feat received something less than the acclaim it deserved because too many persons were reading about a one-hit baseball game at Detroit.

Patty's round will, for our money, rank as the greatest single sports exploit of the year 1952 unless the Browns win the pennant, and we would have to give the matter a lot of thought even then. It is extremely unlikely that the stocky redhead's record ever will be beaten, if equalled.

Speaking as one who has followed the gals on many a round and has watched Patty hit them for approximately half her life, we still find it difficult to conceive of anything in skirts shooting a 64 over a regulation golf course. The length of the Richmond layout is, incidentally, somewhat greater than that of the average links played by the men stars on their annual winter tour.

THAT THE PLEASANT, unaffected girl from Minneapolis should have been the one to crack what had been considered exclusively man's scoring domain strikes an especially responsive chord here. Patty has had a hard time of it, one way and another, since she turned pro and began battling against Babe Didrikson Zaharias and the occasional glamor pusses who take prettier pictures.

Back in 1941, when she was just reaching her peak, the freckled little scrapper suffered a shattered knee in a car accident in Texas and was encased in a plaster cast for 18 months. She still bears wicked scars, and there are rounds when the knee pains and throbs, but she made a comeback nearly as spectacular as that of Ben Hogan after his crash, also in Texas.

There were long, dreary periods when Patty must have nearly despaired of ever gaining the upper hand on the long-driving Babe and some of the others, such as Louise Suggs. One of them seemed always to be winning the big ones and hogging the headlines until finally, last summer, Patty bested the Babe in a gruelling 36-hole play-off for the Weathervane championship at the Deepdale Course here.

It was reported on strong authority that Patty had offered to split the prize, richest in women's golf, but that the Babe turned her down. Patty was a tired gal that day of the final round, but she was a grim competitor, too, and she took it all when the Babe badly missed a 15-foot putt on the last green.

LATER, CUTTING up old times with the two of them in the club lounge, we developed a strong feeling that the girl from Minneapolis finally had reached her goal and would not be chasing the Babe many times in the future. Her tremendous victory at Richmond indicates that patty, still lonely at 32, has it in her to dominate the women's field for years to come. The Babe, by our figures, must be crowding 40.

Patty's terrific burst of golf at Richmond, incidentally, is not the only indication that the fair ones are reducing the athletic gap between themselves and the men. From the west comes word that Maureen Connolly, the sturdy San Diego girl who swamped her field in the national tennis championships last year, recently split sets with Mike Franks, who is considered the Coast's brightest kid star.

Reds' Troubles Begin, Eastern Clubs Arrive

Giants Sweep Series With 4-1 Verdict; Edwards Belts Homer

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds could use some more Pittsburgh pitching.

The Reds built up some healthy batting averages, largely against Pirate hurling, in their first 11 games but two games against New York Giant flinging have brought a grand total of two runs, six hits—and no victories.

Leo Durocher's National League champs completed a sweep of the series Wednesday with a 4 to 1 victory over the Redlegs in a game that was amazingly like their 2 to 1 conquest Tuesday night in many respects.

The Reds got three hits off Larry Jansen Wednesday, the same number they accumulated against Sal Maglie in the first game. Their only run was a home run by Hank Edwards in the fifth inning, another exact duplicate of Tuesday's tilt.

Top Mileage

And once again the Giants got the maximum amount of mileage out of a minimum of hits because of their own running game and generosity of Cincinnati pitchers.

The Giants got one run on one hit in the third as a double by Dave Williams, a sacrifice and a fly produced the tally. They got two runs on two hits in the fifth and one run on one hit in the sixth as Harry Perkowski yielded two walks before finally being relieved.

Jansen provided another similarity to Tuesday night's game as he gave up only one walk.

He spaced the Reds' hits over three different innings and except for Edwards' booming 395-foot blast into the corner of the bleachers never was threatened seriously. He faced only three batters in seven of the nine innings.

Drop to Fourth

The defeat, coupled with Chicago's victory, dropped the Reds down to fourth place in the standings behind Brooklyn, Chicago and the Giants.

The New Yorkers, who have lost only one game here in their last 13 starts, moved out to make room today for Boston and Herman Wehmeier, who has a two won and none lost record, was due to face Vern Bickford in the afternoon opener.

Brewer, Colonels Tie For Top Spot

By The Associated Press

Milwaukee and Louisville were locked in the American Association lead today as western clubs opened an eastern swing.

Milwaukee got a jump on the eastern invasion by shading the Indians at Indianapolis 6-5 in Wednesday night's only game.

The other teams after an off day, open tonight with Minneapolis at Toledo, St. Paul at Columbus and Kansas City at Louisville. The Brewers will continue at Indianapolis.

The Milwaukee triumph, in 10 innings, shoved the Brews into a 9-4 standing with Louisville with a two-game edge over Minneapolis.

EIGHT SCHOOLS COMPETE

BOWLING GREEN (AP)—Eight schools will compete in the fourth annual women's intercollegiate tennis tournament which starts today on the Bowling Green State University Courts. Representatives from Bowling Green, Denison, Miami, Ohio State, Ohio University, Ohio Wesleyan, Toledo and Western Reserve will take part. The tournament ends Sunday.

Open at Washington

Tribe Hits Cold Streak, Drops 3-1 Decision To A's

WASHINGTON (INS)—Cleveland's hot and cold Indians moved into Washington today to open a three-game series with the Nats—always pesky for the Indians.

The Indians were almost cold Wednesday night in Philadelphia as they were hot Tuesday night and the result was they lost the fifth game in their last seven starts, 3-1.

Tuesday night the Tribe belted out 25 hits for 21 runs and in the wind-up of the two-game series with the Philadelphia Athletics were limited to six hits and one unearned run.

Southpaw Bobby Shantz took the measure off the Indians who doubled the A's hit output for the evening. The game was in direct contrast to the slugfest the night before which saw 43 hits smashed.

Early Wynn and Steve Gromek combined talents to limit the Athletics to three hits but that was all they needed to snap a seven-game losing streak.

Wynn, who went six innings, suffered his first setback in four starts. The Tribe now has a mark of nine wins and five losses in the American League race and is in third place.

Elmo Valo carried the big stick for the A's. He belted a three-run homer in the fifth after the Indians had taken a 1-0 lead.

Jim Hegan singled to left in the fifth. Wynn then sent a grounder to Skeeter Kell at third. Kell threw high in an attempt to force Hegan at second and all hands were safe. However, Hegan injured his ankle while sliding into second and was removed from the game.

The Tribe's catcher suffered a sprained ankle and will be sidelined for several days.

After Harry Simpson struck out, Bob Avila alshed a single over second base, scoring Barney McCoskey, who ran for Hegan. Al Rosen was purposely passed to fill the bases but Larry Doby grounded out to end the inning.

Kell opened the A's half of the fifth with a walk. Joe Astroth singled, moving Kell to third, but Wynn struck out Shantz and Eddie Joost. Valo then came through with his long blast which went over the right field wall and spelled defeat for the Indians.

Rookie Quincy Troup took Hegan's place behind the plate. It was his first major league appearance. Birdie Tebbetts, Hegan's regular understudy, was ejected from the game earlier for riding Umpire Bill Grieve.

Doby made his first start since April 20 and failed to hit safely in four times at bat. He was sidelined with a pulled thigh muscle.

Avila collected two of the Tribe's six hits and Jim "Fearless" Fridley, the rookie left fielder, maintained his .326 batting mark with one hit in three times at bat.

Bob Lemon, 2-1, goes to the mound for the Indians tonight against Washington's Sid Hudson 0-1.

Crestline Hurler, Mainstay Of Navy Team, Expected To Receive Shot at Majors, After Discharge

By JOHN SHORT

Crestline residents are sweating out the discharge of 20-year-old ball player George Sherbondy from the U. S. Navy. That discharge is expected around November, 1953.

When he is released by the Navy, residents of the village expect a parade of major league baseball scouts to arrive in an effort to sign the youth to a diamond contract.

Sherbondy for the last two seasons has been starting hurler for the San Diego Naval Station team and has picked up this season apparently in better shape than ever before. Already he has hurled the Blue Jackets to five wins while posting a 1.67 earned run average.

The Crestline hurler is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Sherbondy. Prior to his enlistment in the Navy, following his high school graduation, he had no formal baseball training with the exception of a brief stint spent with the Crestline Junior Legion team and the Independent Crestline Merchants. Two years ago, he reported for training with the station team along with 600 men. After the field was narrowed down, he found himself in a starting pitcher's berth and has been there since. In his first year, playing against the toughest service teams in the country, he posted nine wins and five losses. Last year he posted a 10-3 mark despite being slowed down by a pulled muscle. He also appeared in relief roles several times during the campaign.

DURING BOTH YEARS, Sherbondy has hurled for the San Diego team it has won the 11th Naval District crown. Coach John Gibson has termed him one of the most dependable young hurlers he has ever coached.

During an early-season road trip this year, Sherbondy allowed the University of Arizona only four hits in posting an 11-3 win. The win broke a 27-game victory streak for the college squad and was the first loss suffered by its hurler, Bob Risher, in two seasons.

Most of the Navy team's opposition is composed of men with experience in professional baseball. Two of Sherbondy's teammates last year were Eddie Mathews, third baseman for the Boston Braves, and Pete Whisenant.

Baseball observers term Sherbondy a natural The 6-1 youth weighs only 160 pounds and possesses uncanny control. In addition to a blazing fastball, he has a sharpbreaking curve and tricky change of pace. His assortment early this year accounted for a 20-3 shellacking handed the Camp Pendleton Marines. It was the worst loss ever suffered by a Camp Pendleton team.

During his first training period, the hurler developed a snaky submarine pitch but has been forbidden to throw it by his coaches. They issued the ultimatum in order to protect the youth's arm.

ONLY HANDICAP RUN into by Sherbondy is the varied weather in the 11th District. During the past year, he has hurled games in temperatures ranging from 52 to 100 degrees. Sherbondy ran into trouble in the 52 degree temperature and needed help in the eighth inning when he could no longer keep his arm warm.

Sherbondy graduated from Crestline High School in June, 1949 and enlisted in the Navy the following November. When the youth started his career with the Legion team, he was a shortstop but found his niche on the mound after two years of infield play.

* * *

HIGHLIGHTS OF HIS baseball career at Crestline was a no-hit performance turned in against a strong Leesville nine when he was 17 years old. While at Crestline High School, the ace hurler also was a top-flight passer for the football squad but was too light to fit into a regular spot in the power offense used by the school.

Although no definite offers have been advanced by major league clubs, all of Crestline knows they're coming when Sherbondy is handed his discharged in 17 months.

Ice Vogues Cast Members Former Amateur Champions

Donna Jeanne, the feminine star of Ice Vogues of 1952 which starts a four day run at the Coliseum Monday, is one of the many outstanding skaters in the nation who climbed up through amateur skating competitions to turn professional and enter ice show business.

Donna won the National Pair championships three successive years from 1944 through 1946 with her sensational skating partner, Jean Pierre Brunet. The blond figure skater also whisked through a series of spectacular figure skating championships and won the coveted "Gold Medal" held only by a few of America's figure skaters.

The Mid-Atlantic junior and senior solo crowns were also won by Donna. Turning professional, Donna Jeanne accepted and began a tour of the United States with Ice Vogues in 1949 then on to Mexico and South America, it was during this tour that Tony LeMac met Donna and they were married in August, 1950 in Caracus, Venezuela. These two young stars now headline the cast of Ice Vogues of 1952.

Hayes "Doc" Carlin is another champion skater who came through the competive ranks to master the professional field as top flight skating comedian of Icedom. "Doc" was Pacific Coast senior pairs champion, and junior solo champion in 1940.

Then there is the story of Jimmie Caesar the thrill speed star of Ice Vogues, Jimmie was an all-round athlete who plied the trades of champion jockey, swimmer, boxer, hockey player, and finally settled for a berth on Ice Vogues.

NCAA to Study Athletic Setup At Kentucky

CHICAGO (AP)—The National Collegiate Athletic Association has informed the University of Kentucky that it will make an inquiry into the school's athletic policy and practices.

Hugh C. Willett, NCAA president, made the announcement Wednesday.

In a statement he said:

"The press reports of the indictment by Judge Streit of certain athletic practices alleged to have existed at the University of Kentucky are of sufficient detail and importance to prompt me to request the membership committee of the NCAA to initiate inquiry as to the present status of athletic policy and athletic practices at that institution."

Judge Saul S. Streit, in handing out suspended sentences in New York Tuesday to three former Kentucky baseball stars for shaving points in a game, sharply criticized the university.

He accused the school of making football and basketball "commercialized enterprises" and said there had been "cribbing at examinations" and "illegal recruiting."

The jurist said grand jury testimony revealed that players received bonuses and gifts.

CLASS BACKS BALL TEAM

When the Wesley Methodist Unity Bible Class met Tuesday night at the church, members voted $5 toward the expenses of the church's baseball team. Devotions were by Mrs. Fred Upton. During business, reports were made on the recent rummage sale. Mrs. Charles Clark and Mrs. H. C. Wendler sang. Contest awards went to Mrs. L. E. Reardon, Mrs. F. D. Latimore and Mrs. Harry Green. Refreshments were served by Mrs. William Herron, Mrs. M. E. Kates, Mrs. C. J. Eddy, Mrs. Darius Moore, Mrs. Reed Stevens and Mrs. Alberta Nash. The annual class banquet and memorial service, with the dinner at 6 o'clock, will be held May 27 at the church.

Cardington Clinches Eighth Straight Morrow Co. Title

CARDINGTON—The Cardington Pirates downed Iberia, 11-0, here Wednesday night to clinch their eighth consecutive Morrow County baseball title. The shutout was the third straight in tourney play for the Cardington mound staff.

Brad Landon limited the Presidents to only two safeties. In both previous outings, Pirate hurlers had posted no-hitters. Landon blanked Chesterville, 12-0, on no hits in the opening round and Bill Henthorne pitched hitless ball against Edison in the semi-finals to post a 9-0 win.

The Pirates jumped into a three-run lead in the first inning when Iberia committed two miscues. They added two tallies in the second. The game was called at the end of the sixth inning due to a tourney rule calling for games to end when a team posts a 10-run lead after five innings.

Landon posted 14 strikeouts during the six innings. Henthorne with two for four, Roger Davis with a triple, and Wilson and Don Kelley with doubles paced the Pirate attack.

Williams Honored By Fans, Responds With 2-Run Homer

BOSTON (AP)—Now that Ted Williams' admirers have had their way—by subjecting him to Boston's outstanding baseball ovation—there is a possibility that Williams actually will make his second departure from the Boston Red Sox to the U.S. Marines today.

He may play against the St. Louis Browns.

A crowd of 24,764 well-wishers was convinced it heard Williams' second baseball swan song in 10 years Wednesday when he slapped a game-winning one-on homer against the Detroit Tigers' Dizzy Trout on his last turn at bat in the seventh inning.

During the pre-game festivities, a jovial Williams inspired a thunderous ovation with his cap-waving responses to the crowd's cheers. But the stands shook when Williams came through with his clutch hit, the 324th homer of his Red Sox career.

Back in the comparative quiet of the clubhouse after the game, Williams startled Manager Lou Boudreau and his teammates.

"Since I have to be back here (Fenway Park) tomorrow, I may be playing another game with you," Williams said. "We'd love to have you for one more," Boudreau replied.

"I'll see how I feel in the morning," Williams added. "The only thing I'm sure of now is that I have to report for active service at Willow Grove, Pa., by midnight Friday."

Hill Gail Still Derby Favorite As Entry List Opens

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—The Kentucky Derby is not scheduled to start until 4:30 p.m. EST, Saturday, but Racing Secretary Lincoln Plaut began receiving entries at 7 a.m. today.

The trainers had some three hours to enter their horses today and a like period Friday before the draw is made for post positions. The policy of accepting entries 24 hours in advance was started last year.

There was no indication how many trainers would take advantage of the opportunity to enter their horses before the usual time. But the names of 16 horses are expected to be readied for the post position draw around 10 a.m. Friday.

Hill Gail, whose record smashing mile in the Derby Trial changed the Derby outlook considerably, remained the strong choice. But there were many who figured A. W. Abbott's slow starting but fast closing Blue Man would wear down the Calumet flyer in the long stretch drive.

With Eddie Arcaro confident he'll ride his fifth Derby winner, Hill Gail is expected to open at around 8 to 5 with Blue Man the second choice at 3 to 1.

Minister Pits 50 Church-Going Beauties Against Painted Dolls

MIDDLESBROUGH, Eng. (AP)—British tars who've been going from the deep blue sea to the devil were in the middle of a pretty kettle of fish today—50 church-going beauties against the painted dolls of the waterfront.

The Rev. Cyril Kettle organized the church girls, ready for the call to swarm over the dockside area and flaunt their charms against ladies of ill repute who try to entice lonely sailors on leave.

Kettle said the temptations of the tars have been a longtime problem and a losing fight up to now—until he thought of fighting fire with fire and women with women. When the next ship comes in, he'll turn his beauties loose.

He's chose 50 fresh-faced lassies—"all full-blooded and good Christians"—and is certain that the sailors will walk disdainfully past the heavily painted girls in high heeled shoes.

"My girls make them look as flat as last night's beer," he boasted. "They are the sort of girls a sailor's mother would like, but they're not hot Gospellers who will try to ram religion down the chaps' throats."

Kettle says he understands the sailor's problem — "Any normal man likes women, and a sailor who has been at sea for months desperately needs a girl's company. I mean to see he meets the right type of girl.

After the enticing is done, the sailors will be steered to a mission for seamen that Kettle runs —"In the mission they'll be able to dance with them, play table tennis, talk and have meals with them."

One of the 50 beauties, red-haired, 23-year-old Joan Tweed, said some of the girls had given the plan a trial run and it worked.

"The sailors smile happily when they see us," she said. "It makes me feel like some sort of guardian angel."

Patrol Probes Auto Bombing

COLUMBUS (AP)—The State Highway Patrol has been ordered by Gov. Frank J. Lausche to investigate the bombing of the car of a candidate for sheriff in Newton Falls Tuesday night.

Mayor Joseph J. Baldine of Hubbard, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Trumbull County sheriff, was speaking at the Newton Falls community building when a blast rocked the building, breaking several windows.

The crowd of 300 went outside and found Baldine's car blown apart. Baldine said he felt sure the bomb was meant for him, but could not figure who was responsible.

Maloney Withdraws From Court Race

Bernard C. Maloney, Marion attorney, today announced he has withdrawn as a write-in candidate for the Democratic nomination as judge of the Third District Court of Appeals.

His withdrawal leaves Judge Clarence U. Ahl of Bucyrus unopposed for the Democratic nomination. Judge Ahl, formerly on the Crawford County Common Pleas Court bench, is now serving on the district court. He was appointed by Gov. Lausche to serve until the man elected in November takes over next February.

Republicans seeking the nomination are Judge Moran B. Jenkins of Lima and Judge Ray Younger of Celina.

All are write-in candidates for the post.

PROSPECT SERVICE

Lutheran World Action Sunday will be observed by St. Paul's Lutheran Church at Prospect Sunday morning. The sermon will be "Our Way Home." A congregational meeting will be held following the service. The Katherine Lucher Guild will hold a guest party Thursday night with Mrs. David Steed of Radnor as hostess. Guest speaker will be Charles Pfarr who will tell of his experiences in New Guinea as a medical missionary. The Missionary Aid Society will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Clarence Kietzman entertaining.

Says Millionaire Seaman Should Be Courtmartialed

HONOLULU (AP)—Rear Adm. Francis C. Denebrink announced today he has recommended court martial for Bruce S. Hopping, millionaire seaman who publicly criticised the way he was fed and treated in the Navy.

Denebrink said Hopping "should be brought to trial by court martial" for "violation of Navy regulations and conduct to the prejudice of good order and discipline." Denebrink is commander of service forces, Pacific.

Hopping recently figured prominently in an investigation of crew complaints against discipline aboard the salvage ship USS Reclaimer. He retained a civilian attorney to represent the crew.

The captain and executive officer of the Reclaimer were exonerated in a naval hearing of charges of "petty tyranny."

Hopping, a reservist with a $3,000,000 lumber business in New Jersey, is a seaman second class. He first tangled with the Navy when he charged publicly last fall that the food at the Bainbridge, Md., naval training center "wasn't fit to eat."

He was transferred Wednesday from the Reclaimer to Denebrink's staff and assigned as a barracks orderly.

Saturday he made an uninvited 7 a.m. call on the admiral, who was breakfasting in pajamas.

Hopping said he wanted to talk things over but "the admiral wasn't a gentleman. He got huffy. He told me to get out."

Western Union Strike Still On

NEW YORK (AP)—The Western Union Telegraph Co. says its nationwide business now tops 50 per cent of its normal revenue, but the striking telegraphers maintain their walkout still is 98 per cent effective.

The divergent reports came Wednesday from the company and officials of the AFL Commercial Telegraphers Union (CTU), in the fifth week of the strike.

The 31,000 telegraphers stopped work April 3 over unmet demands for a shortened work week without loss of pay, a 16-cent hourly cost of living increase and other benefits.

In its announcement the company said it has restored telegraph, cable and money order service to 1,562 cities and towns which normally handle 80 per cent of such business.

"At several large cities telegraph volume is now 100 per cent of normal due to the return to work of full operating forces," the company said.

But CTU headquarters in Washington claimed its walkout remains almost 100 per cent effective.

The University of Alabama's varsity tennis coach, C. De La Menardiere, is a former flying hero with the French Air Force.

Society Holds Annual Dinner

Crippled Children Group Hears Reports

The Marion County Society for for Crippled Children held its annual dinner meeting at the YMCA recently.

A total of $2,750 was collected to date in the 1952 Easter Seal Drive it was reported by Bob Cunningham, chairman of the drive. He also announced that donations are still being made toward the goal of $5,000.

Floyd Wilhelm, treasurer of the society, gave the financial report. R. H. Brandt told about his findings in investigating the possibility of a physiotherapy center in Marion.

Paul V. Brown, superintendent of schools in Tiffin and past state president of the Ohio Society of Crippled Children, was guest speaker.

He announced facts and figures of the extensive work being done by 101 agencies in 76 Ohio counties. He stressed that the first aim of the societies is to find the crippled and handicapped, second to give them medical care, third to educate them, and last to find a job for them.

Representatives from the churches, service clubs, school system and health and welfare organizations attended the meeting.

Mrs. Jane V. Ross, president of the Marion County Society, presided over the business meeting. She expressed appreciation for the response to the seal campaign and urged those who have not contributed to do so.

BREAK WORLD WATER SKI RECORD. After breaking the world's long-distance water ski record, Evelyn Wolford, 25, and Bruce Parker, 40, of Amityville, N. Y., enjoy some hot coffee at Cat Cay, Bahamas. They had started on a 195-mile non-stop trip from Nassau, Bahamas, to Miami and had skimmed 135 miles over the water when swamped by a heavy swell. Although 60 miles short of their goal, they managed to set a new record.

CHURCH CIRCLE TO MEET

The Blue Cross Circle of St. Mary Church will meet at the Community House at 8 p.m. Thursday. The evening will be spent rolling bandages and preparing dressings. All women of the parish are invited to attend.

Couple Wed Fifty Years

Mr. and Mrs. Furniss To Celebrate Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Furniss of near Caledonia will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary Sunday. The day will be observed with a family dinner at noon, followed by open house from 2 to 4 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m.

They were married May 4, 1902, at the bride's home near Green Camp. She is the former Lulu Josephine Fish, daughter of the late Samuel A. and Alice Bond Fish. Mr. Furniss' parents were Isaiah and Rachel Betz Furniss, natives of Pickaway County.

The couple have seven children, Arthur of near Caledonia, Paul of near Mt. Gilead; Frank of near Edison, Earl of Philadelphia, Pa., Wilfred and John, both at home, and Mrs. Mary Lauderback of near Marion. They also have 14 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Mr. Furniss is a retired farmer. He and his wife have lived their entire married life in the Marion vicinity. Both are in good health.

Daisy Days Sale Slated

Project Will Benefit Wounded Veterans

Annual Daisy Days will be observed in Marion Friday and Saturday, Mrs. Helen Jerew, president of the sponsoring Blue Star Mothers of America, announced today.

Each year blue daisies are sold by members to help war veterans at the Chillicothe Veterans Hospital, who make the daisies.

Mayor Harold F. Robinson in a proclamation called upon the public to support the Daisy Days sale.

Committee chairmen for the drive, appointed by Mrs. Jerew, are Mrs. Wilma Clark, Mrs. Gladys McDougal and Mrs. Semah Carder.

the fifth and sixth grades and the high school girls.

The program is planned with the cooperation of the grade school teachers, Miss Jean Schwabel, Mrs. Maurine Steinmetz, Miss Esther Aten, Mrs. Patricia Reed, Mrs. Dorothy Kinsley, Marion McEvoy, and the music instructor, Miss Mary Lou Fetters.

Wittenberg Graduates To Hear Judge Gram

SPRINGFIELD — Judge Harry G. Gram, Clark County probate judge since 1920 and a Wittenberg College graduate in 1901, will be the speaker at Wittenberg's 107th annual commencement exercises June 8, President Clarence C. Stoughton announced today.

Degrees are scheduled to be awarded to 267 seniors, 160 men and 107 women, the third-largest graduating class in the college's history. Ceremonies will be at 9:30 a.m. in Commencement Hollow on the campus.

The commencement week end will begin with alumni day on Saturday, June 7. Baccalaureate exercises will be Sunday evennig.

Emeritus faculty members will be honored at the annual alumni dinner Saturday evening. Movies of former teachers, taken through the years by Dr. Carroll D. Gaver of Springfield, will be shown.

THERE IN SPIRIT

NEW BRITAIN, Conn. (UP)—Two and one-half months before he would have equalled an 18-year Sunday School perfect attendance record, Weston Dornan was drafted. Church authorities said, however, that they would continue marking him "present" for the remainder of the school year.

New Officers Elected By Vernon PTA

Mrs. John Waddell was elected president of the PTA of Vernon Junior High School at a recent meeting in the school. Also elected were Harold Carroll, first vice president; Clark Fouts, second vice president; Mrs. Clair Ridgway, secretary; Harold Henry, treasurer; Mrs. A. E. Morrison, council representtaive, and Mrs. Donald Weston, alternate council representative.

About 125 persons attended the meeting, which was the last until September. The group voted to sponsor a party for the school's ninth graders May 23.

Guest speaker was Carl Ailing, who spoke about his work as speech and hearing therapist for the Marion City Schools. The program also included several numbers by the school orchestra and band, under the direction of Homer Huffman.

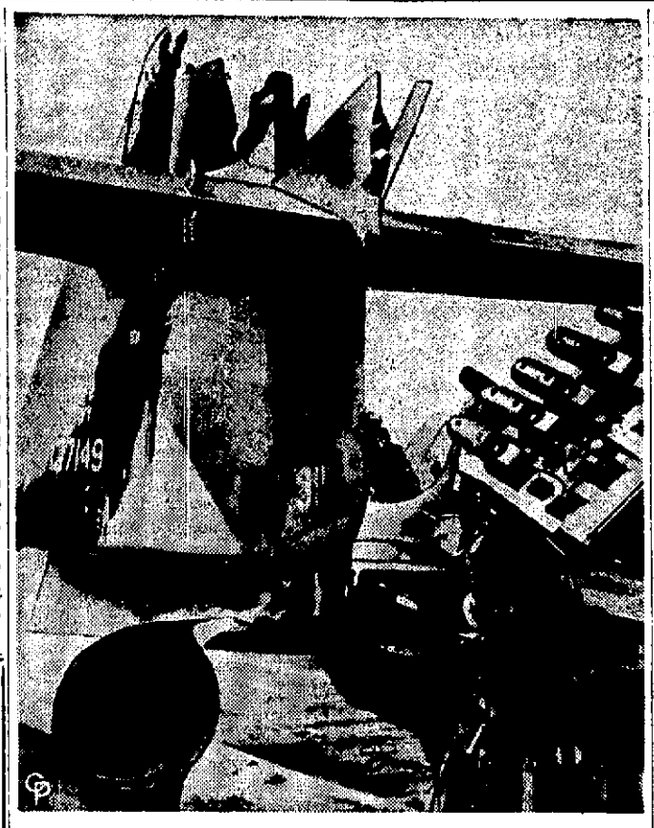
Mt. Victory Girl Wins Hardin Co. Spelling Bee

Mary Jane Dugan, seventh grader at Mt. Victory School, who was last year's runner-up in the Hardin County spelling contest, walked off with the county championship this year.

She competed against 19 other contestants from Hardin County schools to win the 1952 championship in a recent spell down at the Hardin County Courthouse adultorium in Kenton.

Mary Jane, who was champion at her school will compete in the state contest to be held at Columbus on May 10.

The runner-up was Shirley Rapp, also a seventh grader at Mt. Victory. She was also runner-up in the Mt. Victory contest.



HE HAS REASON TO SMILE. Looking pretty happy after arriving back on the flattop U.S.S. Antietam is Lt. R. Saturne. He's holding the shattered tail of his F9F Jet fighter after it had been hit by flak while on a mission over Korea. Although the vertical stabilizer was practically shot away, he managed to make the carrier by skillful flying.

Rotary Hears Dr. McDaniel

Dr. I. G. McDaniel of Carey, well known sportsman, showed colored slides of scenes along the Alcan Highway to Alaska at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Marion Rotary Tuesday at Hotel Harding.

In his remarks, Dr. McDaniel said that on the highway filling stations are 400 miles apart and that often he did not see another car for 200 miles. He also stated that prices are very high in Alaska. A hamburger for .75 and soft drinks or coffee for 25 cents is notat all unusual, he said.

In regard to the slides of glaciers, he explained that the ice of one of these glaciers was 700 feet thick with crevices approximately 75 feet deep.

He also showed slides of Alaskan sunsets, describing them as "each one more beautiful than the one before".

Dr. McDaniel was introduced by Marion McDaniel, program chairman. Welcomed as a new member by the Rotarians was Henry Lee Hicks. Visiting Rotarian was O. F. Kime of Bucyrus.

Guests included Helmut Kleinberger of Buenos Aires, Argentina, Edward Marquart of Akron, Stanley Jay of Columbus, Richard Lister, John F. Smith, H. J. McGara, Vern Miller and Cleo Ludwig, all of Marion.

Betty Bowden was the student reporter from the Harding High School journalism classes.

Little Journeys

Want Somewhere To Go?

Motorists are always looking for places to visit in spring and summer. Here is one of a series of brief articles on such places not far from Marion.

By EMORY ANDERSON

Indian Mill In Wyandot County

An old grinding mill, built in 1820 on what was then the Wyandot Indian Reservation, is the scene of our visit this week.

The mill stands on the bank of the Sandusky River about three miles northeast of Upper Sandusky.

The scene is one of natural beauty. The sparkling waters of the Sandusky River cascade over what is left of the dam which once diverted water through the mill and over the water wheel.

THE WATER WHEEL is gone, but the sluiceway through which the water ran is still in place. In fact, much of the original machinery is still inside the mill and many parts of the machinery can be seen outside.

The building is in an excellent state of preservation. Solidly built on a stone foundation, it still stands as it was built by John Garrett, a pioneer white man in the area who married a young Indian woman. John Lish was the first miller.

THE MILL building is two stories high and faces on Wyandot County Road No. 47. The rear of the mill is over the river. At this point the Sandusky River flows through a shallow valley and is flanked with sycamore and birch trees. Small wonder the spot was a favorite camping and fishing spot for the Indians.

The dam is a marvel of construction, and although it has been broken more than half of it has withstood the test of time. Huge posts were paiced deep in the river bottom, and on these was built a wooden floor of three-inch thick timber which diverted the water through the mill. For the last century the timbers have stood with the waters of the Sandusky River flowing over them.

The mill was continued as a private enterprise after the organization of Wyandot County in 1845 and continued for many years. It was still operated, though only on a part time basis, until 1932.

A PLAN TO preserve and and open the mill to the public is being sponsored by the Wyandot Archeological Society. The mill and the grounds adjacent along the river are to be opened to the public as a fishing, camping and picnicing grounds, according to plans now being formulated.

To get to the old mill, drive north from Upper Sandusky and then northeast on the Sycamore Road. Turn east at the Battle Island monument on Wyandot County Road No. 47 and the mill is located one mile east.

The mill itself is not open to the public. It has not been used for many years and much of the machinery has fallen into disrepair. The river nearby is still the favorite fishing spot for many area residents.

Three Marion Men Get Safe Driving Awards

Three Marion drivers of the Commercial Motor Freight Inc. and one from the area were among the 360 safe drivers throughout Ohio, Indiana and West Virginia who received recognition at the 16th Annual Safe Driver Dinner of the company held Sunday at the Deshler-Wallick Hotel in Columbus.

Marion men who received recognition were Melvin Beers, 233 Tully St., safe driving award for nine years; Harold Stevens, 537 Park St., six years; Clyde Boham, 438 Park St., and Harry Lee, LaRue, five years

Other Marion drivers receiving awards were Russell Schoffner, Edward Eshman, Richard Noe, Thomas Biggert, Stanley Hickman, Robert Midlam, Ralph Watson and Cyrile Wiess.

LaRue Couple Wed 50 Years

Taylors To Observe Anniversary Sunday

MR. AND MRS. LOYD TAYLOR

Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Taylor will observe their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday with open house during the afternoon and evening at their home near LaRue. They were married May 2, 1902, in Mrs. Taylor's home at Hawes, Ark., near Hot Springs.

Mr. Taylor is the son of the late Hugh Taylor, a native of England, and Jennie McCarthur Taylor, a native of Jersey, O., in Licking County. Mrs. Taylor's par's parents were John E. Davis and Sena Ralph Davis, natives of Detroit, Mich., and Cincinnati, respectively.

Following their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor traveled from Arkansas to Jersey, O., in a covered wagon pulled by a team of western ponies. They moved in 1930 to the farm near LaRue where they now engage in farming.

Both Mr. Taylor, who will be 74 in June, and his wife, who is 66, are in good health. Mr. Taylor is a member of the Presbyterian Church in Jersey and Mrs. Taylor belongs to the Christian and Missionary Alliance Church in Columbus.

The couple are parents of three sons, Gilbert, Thurman and John, all of Columbus. They have seven grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Mr. Taylor has three brothers, Vern of Cambridge, O., Reed of Jersey and Glen of Columbus. Mrs. Taylor has two brothers, Arvil Davis of Hawes, Ark., and Carl Davis of Benton, Ark.

Babe Ruth was the home run champion of the American League 12 times.

County Health Council Meets

Twenty members, representing 18 organizations and health agencies, were present at a recent meeting of the Marion County Health Council in the YMCA. Chairman Robert T. Mason Jr. presided.

Herb Bennett was named chairman of a committee to study the aims and accomplishments of several outstanding county units of similar nature, and to draft a constitution and by-laws for the county council. Other members of the committee are Miss Evelyn Hipsher, Dr. Merrill Ranck, Mrs. Donald Johnson and Carl Lehner.

Lehner submitted a comprehensive report on the financial structure of income and expenditures of the Marion County Health Board.

Today's Birthday

ANN KULLMER, born May 1, 1917, at McComb, Ill. Violinist and orchestra conductor, she leads without score or baton. Noted for her success in pre-war Germany, France and Italy, she established her home on Melody Mountain in Vermont. When 11 she was concertmaster for the Detroit Young People's Symphony and at 16 played second violin in the Indianapolis Symphony. She has served as a war correspondent.

LAW CATCHES UP

CAMBRIDGE, Md. (UP) — It took the law nine years to catch up with Aubrey D. Moore, but Moore got too talkative. He was taken in on a speeding charge and volunteered the information that he had had a driver's license only a week after driving nine years without one.

Service Guilds Hold Combined Meetings

A combined meeting of the Wesleyan Service Guild and the Suzanne Wesley Service Guild of the Epworth Methodist Church was held recently in the church parlors. Devotions were given by Mrs. Louis Cummins. Keith Roberts reviewed the book, "If Jesus Come to My House." A movie about missions in South America was shown by Mrs. F. L. Thomas. Business meetings were held by each group. Refreshments were served by the Suzanna Guild.

Extension Service Project

Home Demonstration Week Being Observed

This week, from Sunday, April 27, through Saturday, May 3, is observed throughout the nation as National Home Demonstration Week, Miss Lois A Simonds, Marion County home demonstration agent, reported today.

Home demonstration work is a part of the Agricultural Extension Service which was established by the Smith-Lever Act in 1914. The extension service in Marion County is operated cooperatively by the United States Department of Agriculture, Ohio State University, and the county. The service was established to provide instruction and practical information in agriculture and home economics.

To learn what the people want, extension agents in each county work through councils composed of representatives of the people in that county, such as the Marion County Home Demonstration Council Council members find out the needs of the local people and take them to the home council meeting, where the county home demonstration program is planned to fit the majority of requests

To carry out these projects, local leaders help the home demonstration agent in teaching

1951-52 Program

The 1951-52 home demonstration program in the county included refinishing furniture, a sewing machine clinic, a county-wide meeting on Christmas ideas, and programs on "Use of Color in the Home," "Legal Aspects of Business in the Home," and "Making Your Time Worth More" for local groups

Sixteen women participated in a series of three meetings to refinish furniture One sewing machine clinic was held at which four sewing machines were cleaned and adjusted. For the countywide meeting on homemade Christmas ideas, 175 women were present

Nine communities had meetings on "Use of Color in the Home," in which 155 women participated Miss Simonds conducted the project The Marion County Bar Association worked with the Home Demonstration Council in meetings on "Legal Aspects of Business in the Home" Ninety men and women participated in four of these community meetings

Fourteen local leaders tought "Making Your Time Worth More to about 50 of their neighbors in six communities.

Plan New Program

Plans are being made now for the 1952-53 home demonstration program for Marion County, Miss Simonds said. Council members plan to encourage women in their communities in "Home Care of the Sick" classes taught by the Red Cross

As a means of strengthening family relationships, the council plans to have a project on "Recreation for the Family at Home." The project will include making games and puzzles

A project on storage for the home will be conducted, and instruction in canning and weaving chair seats will be offered.

The only new pari-mutuel harness race track this year is Grandview Oval which will stage a meeting at Solon, O., Sept. 11-Oct 31

Caledonia Band Concert Series Starts Tonight

The first in a series of Caledonia School Band concerts will be given tonight from 7 to 9 in the Caledonia Square

The band, under the direction of Earl Warnke, supervisor of instrumental music in Caledonia, will play two hours of concert and march selections on each of the five Thursday nights in May

The merchants of Caledonia are sponsoring the concerts

Business Employes Who Vote Will Be Named on Honor Roll

The 'Voters Honor Roll" will again take the spotlight in Marion stores and business places this week as a reminder to employer and employe that next Tuesday is primary election day

Launched early in March by the Retail Merchants Division of the Chamber of Commerce, the "honor roll" is credited with helping to get out a record registration. It is the hope of the sponsors that there will be a "repeat performance" for the primaries

"Get Out the Vote" is the slogan Employers are asked to place the honor roll where all may see it, and to urge employes to see that their names are enrolled, also to set a good example by voting

As soon as an employe has voted, his or her name is checked and the person is then privileged to wear a tag stating "I Have Voted" The tags will be delivered by Boy Scouts before election

As soon as a business place or store has 100 per cent voting record, it will be awarded a poster to be placed in a window before closing time on Tuesday.

The sponsors believe that "It's your business how you vote—but it's your business to vote" Figures revealed in a recent survey show that Americans lead the world in avoiding elections

Love Triumphant

By ADELE GARRISON

"I'll trade you even," I told Dicky with a gamin grin as he took the tray from me, set it down, and then put me into a chair facing him.

"I'm an old shark, remember," he told me. "I was swapping marbles before you knew there were such things. But state your terms and I'll take the matter under consideration."

"They're very simple," I said. "I'll tell you about Lillian after you tell me why Father wished to see you."

"No fair!" he said in anguished accents which his twinkling eyes belied. "I can guess correctly about Lillian, and you can't have the slightest idea what Dad was telling me."

"Wanna bet?" I swaggered, in Junior's best manner. "At least that I know the subject of your talk?"

"Okay!" he agreed. "I'll bite. A plate of your fudge against a nosegay of roses."

"Those roses are mine!," I declaimed, quoting the old nursery tale. 'Father was telling you about Harry."

Dicked looked at me with amazement—and respect.

"Touche!" he said. "How did you know?"

"Elementary, Watson!" I quoted airily. "We've had the latest news on Jack, and Carlotta working on the problem of Ronald, will telephone Marion, not Father. That leaves only Harry—and now that you've admitted it I'll tell you about Lillian first, for it fits in."

"Okay! Shoot!" he said, settling back comfortably against the cushions of his chair, and I told him of Lillian's fear that her husband never would come back again, and also of her resolve to get up, face her problems, and put me to no more trouble.

"I'll give her a long credit mark for that last one," he said. "But how about her obsession that under no circumstances must Marion marry Ronald?"

"She didn't say anything about that angle," I told him, "but, knowing her, I'm sure she still is cherishing that plan."

"I agree with you," he said, "and there's only one person in the world who has a chance of changing that resolve of hers—that's old Harry."

"I'm not so sure that even he could change her resolve," I said, although I agree that he's the only chance. But—he isn't here. Or"—I sprang up from my chair with a sudden stimulating thought—"is he coming back? Is that your news? And what has happened to Terence McGovern?"

Dicky had risen from his own chair as I came out of mine, and he patted me on the head with a ridiculous imitation of a father soothing an excited child.

"There, there, Baby!" he said, "sit down, and I'll find your lost teddy bear."

He put me back into my chair, and sat down again opposite me.

"Terry is in a hospital, and he won't come out of it for a good long time," he began, and I gave a horrified little exclamation.

"Did Harry—?" I gasped.

"Harry had nothing to do with it," Dicky said, "although if he had found it necessary, he would have landed the lad exactly where he is now. But Terry got into this all by himself—an automobile accident, his own car, and his own crazy driving. I don't know which is the more smashed up, he or his car, but, while the car can't be fixed, he can, but he's safe, as far as Bess Conway is concerned, for he's in casts, and won't be out of them for a long time."

"Do you mean," I asked, "that she can leave here any time she wishes?"

School Music Program Set

Prospect Festival Scheduled Friday

Both the vocal and instrumental departments of the Prospect School will take part in the school's annual spring music festival to be presented Friday at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium.

Pupils in grades seven through 12 will participate in the vocal portion, presenting "The Showboat," a portrayal of shows as they were given on the showboats which plied the Mississippi River in the olden days. Speaking parts will be taken by Thad Sobers, James Almendinger, Tom Hickman, Howard Graham, Ronald Woods, Paul Harmon, Wayne Seiter, Gerald Fox, Barbara Hoagland and Laura Roller. A soft shoe dance will be given by Barbara and Joyce Brewer, Mary Carolyn Jones, Mary Ann Kuntz and Suzanne Rinnert, the other three sisters, Dick Eller as John Brook, Margaret Zachman as Aunt Marsh, and Robert Jones, Laurie's grandfather. Exact date of the repeat presentation was to be set by the end of this week.

The instrumental part of the program will include the following: junior band, "March On," Chenette, "America, the Beautiful," Ward, "Silver Skates," Chenette, "Junior High March," Jewell; senior band, "The Booster March," Klein, "Stout Hearted Men," Romberg, "Blue Tail Fly," a novelty, Fred, "Pepperina," Enderson, featuring the clarinets, Marilyn Wood, Lois Roller, Rita Wheeler and Cora Lehner, "The Trombone King," march by King, Levering will be accompanist.

A group of songs to be given by the high school boys glee club, girls glee club, mixed chorus, boys quartet and the junior high boys chorus and girls chorus will include "Cain't You Hear Me Callin', Caroline?" "Polly Wolly Doodle," "Beautiful Dreamer," "Rock-a-ma-Soul," "It's A Big Wide Wonderful World," "Kemo Kimo," "Dry Bones," "The Syncopated Clock," "While Strolling Through the Park One Day," "You'll Never Walk Alone," "Coney Island Baby," "Old King Cole" and "Sleep, Baby, Sleep."

German band, a polka, "Ach Ich Bin So Mude," Echtner, "Der Harmony Scottish," Echtner; senior band, "Sound Off" with Duckworth chant, arranged by Yoder, "Mexican Hat Dance," Bennett, "The Big Bass Viol," Bohannon, featuring a bass duet by Paul Harmon and Ronald Wood, "On The Mall," Goldman; and "Land of Hope and Glory," Elgar, by the senior band and girls glee club.

Mrs. Robert Rice is vocal instructor and George Reed is instrumental music director. Tickets for the program are on sale and are available from both chorus and band members.

Townsend Club Uses International Theme in Party

Townsend Club Four of Marion held a mock election and an international party with a pig-in-a-poke supper at a recent meeting.

The program, arranged by Mrs. Effie Noe, program chairman, consisted of songs and readings in English, Spanish, Swedish, Finnish and German.

Joseph Gonzalez sang "La Cucaracha" and "Cie Lito Linto" in Spanish and explained the origins and meanings of the songs. Mrs. Priscilla Connell gave a reading in English and Mrs. Elizabeth Houser told an Irish joke.

Mrs. Joseph Gonzalez, president, sang a patriotic song in Swedish followed by Miss Linnea Gonzalez singing "America, the Beautiful." Mrs. Georgia Motz and Mrs. Eva Parish gave readings in German.

Mrs. Gonzalez then sang a song in Swedish and in Finnish to illustrate the difference in the languages. She told of some of the Swedish holidays and how they were celebrated.

The mock election and supper followed. Lester Anltjuntti of Indianapolis, Ind. and Earl Troyer of Anderson, Ind. were guests.

Calvary Group To Present Play Again

A repeat performance of the drama version of "Little Women," presented by the Youth Fellowship at Calvary EUB Church last week, will be staged in the near future. This will be a benefit show for the building fund of the rural Salem EUB Church, it was announced.

The play was given Thursday and Friday nights in the Calvary basement auditorium before a total audience of approximately 300, by a cast of nine. Robert Faulkner served as director.

An adaptation of the famous book by Louisa M. Alcott, the story was staged in a setting of the time of the 1860's. The action is woven around a family of four girls and their friends, with Pat Clingenpeel portraying the "heroine," Jo March. Jack Niles was cast as "Laurie, the rich neighbor boy," who is the "hero" of the story. Other roles were taken by Carol Greenbaum, as Mrs. March,

The National League assumed its present roster make-up of Boston, New York, Brooklyn, Chicago, Cincinnati, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and St. Louis in 1900.

TRAFFIC DEATHS UP

CHICAGO (AP) — Traffic deaths in the U.S. showed a slight increase in the first three months of 1952. The National Safety Council said today the toll for the first quarter of this year was 7,930, a gain of two per cent over the first quarter of last year.

Eighteen of the 25 players of the Universtiy of Alabama baseball roster are home state products. Seven are from Tuscaloosa, site of the college campus.

OFFER those "Antiques" stored in the attic for sale through a Want Ad—Furniture is in big demand

Legal Document Penciled On Desk

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (UP)—Workers for a furniture company found a 59-year-old legal document penciled on the bottom of a desk drawer.

Workmen were refinishing the big walnut desk when they found the note. It said:

"October 21, 1892. $210—Received this day from Andrew Yarvis for safekeeping till his return from the state prison, $210. If I should die before his return my estate must pay to him on demand that amount. Samuel C. Fox, Sheriff, Champaign County."

A spatter-guard has been marketed, reports The American Magazine, which prevents grease from marring walls above kitchen stoves. A shade pulls down and catches grease-spatterings. It can be wiped clean and rolled up out of sight in a jiffy.

Steve Canyon — By Milton Caniff

MR. FORGE, AREN'T YOU READY TO GO ASHORE TO THE 'RECEPTION' MR. NEIL IS GIVING US ?
I MAY BE STUCK WITH A SALVAGE JOB HERE, MAJOR CANYON, BUT I DON'T HAVE TO JUGGLE TEA-CUPS WITH SOME ROCK-HAPPY SCHOOLMASTER!
I SEE YOU'RE STUDYING CHARTS OF THE WATERS AROUND REYNARD ISLAND! IF YOU'RE BONING UP FOR THE SALVAGE JOB, THEN I CAN'T INSIST ..
GEE, THANKS, BOSS!
HERE COME THE YOUNG MEN FROM THE SHIP..
OH...
WHY, NIMBUS, YOU LOOK AS IF WE WERE HOLDING A WAKE INSTEAD OF A RECEPTION!... IS SOMETHING WRONG ?
I'M SORRY, FATHER, I'M ALWAYS EXPECTING TOO MUCH, I GUESS!
